

SUPPLEMENTARY EXCHANGE OF NOTES

1

The Secretary of State of the United States of America to the Canadian Ambassador to the United States of America

Department of State,
WASHINGTON, March 1, 1957.

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the Amendment to the Agreement for Co-operation Concerning the Civil Uses of Atomic Energy between the Government of Canada which was signed at Washington on June 26, 1956 and to state that all statutory and constitutional requirements of the United States of America for the entry into force of that Amendment have been complied with and that the Amendment will enter into force, in accordance with Article IV thereof, on the date of your reply indicating that the Government of Canada has complied with all of its statutory and constitutional requirements.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State:

JOHN WESLEY JONES

His Excellency,

A. D. P. Heeney,
Ambassador of Canada.

II

The Canadian Ambassador to the United States of America to the Secretary of State of the United States of America

Canadian Embassy,
WASHINGTON, D.C.
March 1, 1957.

No. 112.

SIR:

I have the honour to acknowledge your note of March 1st, 1957 referring to the Amendment to the Agreement for Co-operation Concerning the Civil Uses of Atomic Energy between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Canada signed at Washington on June 26, 1956. I note that all statutory and constitutional requirements of the United States of America for the entry into force of that amendment have been complied with.

I have the honour to state that the Government of Canada has also complied with all statutory and constitutional requirements for the entry into force of that Amendment. Accordingly, the Amendment shall enter into force on the date of receipt of this note in accordance with Article IV thereof.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

A. D. P. HEENEY

The Honourable John Foster Dulles,
Secretary of State of the United States,
Washington, D.C.