

How to apply

For visits, applicants must submit a letter of application with the following information:

- current research activities of applicant as they relate to the application;
- curriculum vitae of applicant;
- objective of visit and of the potential collaboration;
- Japanese contact person(s), including name and mandate of host institute/company;
- description of activity/contacts leading to visit (with supporting documentation);
- proposed timing and duration of visit;
- breakdown of anticipated costs.

For language training, each applicant must submit a letter of application with the following information:

- proof of a confirmed exchange to a Japanese research facility; and
- proposed language training program with costs.

Note: Applications for language training in conjunction with JSTF-funded projects should be included with project application.

For exchanges, projects and infrastructure support, applications should address the assessment criteria noted below and should include: