5. Further to the law of treaties I would also like to make briefly [illegible] the principal question [illegible] the drafting of the code of treaties in the form of a single international convention. My delegation [illegible] ever since it took our belief [illegible] emerging [illegible] from many years of effort which [illegible] task of [illegible] codification [illegible] agreement [illegible] extremely important [illegible]

The [illegible] this context [illegible] whether [illegible] Secretariat [illegible] first session [illegible] question [illegible] diplomatic conference [illegible] the code [illegible] draft convention. [illegible] opinion [illegible] Canada [illegible] that the [illegible] off when [illegible] done in [illegible] law of [illegible] representation [illegible] later [illegible] list [illegible]

6. Before [illegible] also [illegible] fied [illegible] years [illegible] term- [illegible] tion and [illegible] first [illegible] over [illegible] ties. [illegible] phic [illegible] drafting [illegible] others or [illegible] charge [illegible] wise.

7. It [illegible] International [illegible] Canadian [illegible] has noted with [illegible] that the [illegible] both the [illegible] of Report [illegible] the [illegible] exchange and [illegible] is in [illegible] provided for [illegible] it supports [illegible] the
