

Woodsworth, Mr. J. S.—Con.Amendment—Con.

bility for relief on federal government, 593; recipients of relief in some municipalities living in a condition of serfdom; inadequacy of food, clothing and shelter and fuel, 594; lack of medical attendance, school books and recreation for children of unemployed families; placing of single unemployed homeless men in relief camps under military authorities; serious effects of the unemployment of young people; expenditures in direct relief, 595; use of modern machinery in farming methods; need for some form of unemployment insurance; public works in the form of building of homes for the people, 596; failure of wages to keep pace with dividends and cash bonuses; our public debt, 597; statement of Mr. Bennett before committee on monetary questions at Imperial economic conference of 1932; arbitrary arrangement by which bonds or mortgages have first claim on national or private income; per capita debt burden of over $800; scaling down of international and internal debts, 598; Mr. Bennett on fall in commodity prices, 599; limitation of our wheat production; farmer to-day producing at less than cost price; significance to the east of failure of western farmers, 600; suggested appointment of price-determining board; guarantee of $60,000,000 loan to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, 601; relief a subsidy to low wages; Social Reconstruction and the British North America Act by F. R. Scott; attacks on the C.C.F. group in the house; action by the Sifton estate against R. O. Swezey in the Beauharnois case; statement by Mr. Young as to political contributions to C.C.F. from Beauharnois corporation and from Moscow, 602; results of the British Columbia elections; C.C.F. representation if proportional representation in force; Montreal Star on the dangers to the older parties of the C.C.F. movement; press comments on the British Columbia election, 603; leader in British Columbia house of C.C.F. party; democracy on trial to-day; departing from the old Canadian ideal that everyone should have a chance, 604; surrender of even forms of democracy in Newfoundland, 605

Woodsworth, Mr. J. S.—Con.

Armament manufacture, control of nickel exports for, 151,

Amdt., 1690, withdrawn, 1710

Audibility of debate, 2117

Austrian situation, 689

Bank Act Amdt. bill, 1076

Bank inspection, 761

Bank of Canada bill, 833, 1299, 1324

Amdt. (Mr. Coote), 1292

Amdt. to M. for Sr., 4374, 4381

Beauharnois power project, statement of Mr.

Young as to contributions from to C.C.F., 602, 795

Bolivia-Paraguay hostilities, proposed embargo on shipment of arms, 3169

Buck, Tim, case of, 4292, 4604

Budget, 2445

Amdt. (Mr. Ralston), 3011

Budget, 2445. Outstanding points in this year's budget; increase in the national debt of $135,200,000; cost of administering the public debt; reductions and changes in taxation, 2445; tax on "fortuitous gains" to gold miners; suggested taking over the gold mines by the government; no changes in the income tax; comparison of income taxes in Canada and Great Britain, 2446; C.C.F. platform outlining policy on taxation; possibility of combining some of our provincial administrations; enormous expenditure in connection with the administration of justice; proposals of the C.C.F. as to changes in the British North America Act, 2447; abolition of the Senate; possibility of converting our national debt; lessening the taxation policy to lessen in some degree the glaring inequalities of income, 2448; Canadian Forum on economic conditions in rural Saskatchewan, 2449; making bricks without straw; accumulation of wealth through the possession of special privileges; gradual extension of powers which all governments are now forced to take to themselves; Gustav Stolper in Foreign Affairs on Politics versus Economics; state control of currency; Mr. Walter Lippman on decline in the national income, 2450

Amendment (Mr. Ralston). 3011

Bureau for Translations bill, 3330

Business of the house, precedence for govt. business, M. (Mr. Bennett), 1054

Cadet services, 1508

Campaign funds, contributions to, 4457