

CHAPTER XII.

THE NOVITIATE.

The secret of a religious vocation, p. 159.—The Misses Bourdon, novices, 162.—Miss Boutet and Miss Godefroy, 165.—Miss Angelique Poisson of Gentilly, 168.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE URSULINES AND THE IROQUOIS.

Ambassadors at the Convent, p. 170.—The female Sachem, 171.—The Convent a fortress, 175.—Intrepidity, 179.—Attempt to civilize the Indians, 185.—Opinion of Mother Mary of the Incarnation, 188.—Experience, 190.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE INMATES OF THE MONASTERY AGAIN.

A picture of life and manners, p. 195.—The Ursulines and the Marquis de Tracy, 198.—New candidates for the Novitiate, 200.—Instruction, 203.—Souvenirs of the pupils, 209.—Ursulines from Home, 214.—Their reception, 216.—Their visits, 218.—List of the Nuns in 1671, 224.

CHAPTER XV.

THE CLOSE OF WELL-SPENT YEARS.

Sad illness of Madame de la Peltrie, p. 226.—Her death, 228.—Another greater sacrifice, 229.—Last moments of Venerable Mother Marie de l'Incarnation, 232.—Her burial, 234.—Appreciations of her character, 236.