

The Votive Lamp, 170.—The donor, Miss de Repentigny, 172.

CHAPTER XV.

EDUCATION IN THE CONVENT.

The relation of pupil and Convent Mother, p. 178.—Local Government, 179.—Course of studies, 182.—Zeal for education, 183.—The Day-School, 185.—Effects of religious teaching, 188.—Specimen of names on old lists; Miss Fezeret, 190.—The Misses de Ramesay, 195.—The Misses Begon and their schoolmates, 196.

CHAPTER XVI.

ANCIENT SUPERIORS.

Number of Superiors in 200 years, p. 199.—Rev. Mother Drouet of Jesus, 202.—Rev. Mothers St. Agnes and St. Joseph, 203.—Rev. Mother Le Maire des Anges, 206.—Rev. Mothers St. John and St. Teresa, 209.—Our Perpetual Superioress, 215.—Act of consecration, 217.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY.

Celebration of religious festivals, p. 221.—Preparations for the Centennial, 222.—The Triduum, 224.—The Indians, 227.—An Inscription, 228.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE 2D MOTHERS MARY OF THE INCARNATION AND ST. CROIX.

Statistics of the Community, coincidences, p. 230.—Mother Cath. Pinguet of the Incarnation, her youth, 232.—Her life in the cloister, 233.—Testimony the Annals render to Mother Dailleboust of St. Croix, 236.

Table of the Professed Nuns from 1639 to 1739, p. 241.

APPENDIX.

NOTES AND DOCUMENTS, p. 249.