

BOOKS FOR YOUNG READERS.

PUBLISHED BY CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, N. Y.

THE WHITE CONQUERORS.

A Tale of Toltec and Aztec. By KIRK MUNROE.

Illustrated by W. S. STACEY. 12mo, $1.25.

"The story is replete with scenes of vivid power; it is full of action and rapid movement, and he must be deficient in the receptive faculty who fails to gain valuable historical instruction, along with the pleasure of reading a tale graphically told."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"It is no re-reading of Prescott that Mr. Munroe presents in this fascinating volume, but an independent narrative, quite original in its point of view, since it depicts the Conquest, not seen through the eyes of Spaniards, but as it was regarded by the native races."—Boston Beacon.

ROBERT GRANT'S

TWO BOOKS FOR BOYS

Jack Hall; or, The School Days of an American Boy.

By ROBERT GRANT. Illustrated by FRANCES G. ATTWOOD.
12mo, $1.25.

"A better book for boys has never been written. It is pure, clean, and healthy, and has throughout a vigorous action that holds the reader breathlessly."—Boston Herald.

"A capital story for boys, wholesome and interesting. It reminds one of Tom Brown."—Boston Transcript.

Jack in the Bush; or, A Summer on a Salmon River. By ROBERT GRANT. Illustrated by F. T. MERRILL.

12mo, $1.25.

"A clever book for boys. It is the story of the camp life of a lot of boys, and is destined to please every boy reader. It is attractively illustrated."—Detroit Free Press.

"An ideal story of out-door life and genuine experiences."—Boston Traveller.
