

witness, or witnesses, forfeit and pay such a sum of money, not exceeding five pounds, as the said Justice shall think fit.

23. Fines, how levied.—In default of payment of any fine imposed under the authority of this Act, on a summary conviction before any Justice of the Peace, together with the costs attending the same, within the period specified for the payment thereof, at the time of conviction by the Justice before whom such conviction may have taken place, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice to issue his warrant directed to any constable to levy the amount of such fine and costs within a certain time to be in the said warrant specified, and in case no distress sufficient to satisfy the amount shall be found, it shall and may be lawful for him to commit the offender to the common gaol of the District wherein the offence was committed for any term not exceeding one month, unless the fine and costs be sooner paid.

24. Appeal against convictions to Quarter Sessions.—And it is enacted, that any person who shall think himself aggrieved by any summary conviction, or decision, under this Act aforesaid, may appeal to the next Court of General, or Quarter Sessions, which shall be holden not less than twelve days after the day of such conviction or decision for the District wherein the cause of complaint shall have arisen: provided always, that such person shall give to the other party a notice, in writing, of such appeal, and of the cause and matter thereof, within three days after such conviction or decision, and seven days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also, either remain in custody until the Sessions, or enter into a
