IV. That any person desirous of being initiated into the mysteries of Masonry in this Lodge, shall make application in writing, agreeably to the annexed form, and be proposed in form, on a regular Lodge night, by a Member of the Lodge, which proposition must be seconded by another Member; he must then stand over one month, or until the next regular Lodge night, at least, that a due enquiry may be made into his character and capacity; for which purpose, a Committee of two Members shall be appointed, who shall make report previous to his being ballotted for; when, if the said ballot shall prove unanimous, (and on no other consideration) he shall be admitted. This regulation to extend to Brethren desirous of joining this Lodge, as well as to candidates for the mysteries.
