CHILD WELFARE
EXHIBITION
OCTOBER 8TH TO 22ND

MONTREAL
1912

The illustration depicts a woman in a long, light-colored dress with a dark sash, seated and holding a young child. The woman's expression is somber, and she is looking down at the child. The child is also looking down, and their hands are clasped together. The style is a high-contrast, woodcut-like graphic. The entire scene is enclosed in a rectangular border.
