REFUSED TO GIVE FEDERAL CHARTER

Application of Prudential Life Insurance Company Rejected by Committee.

OTTAWA, April 22.—As a result of objections offered by the Prudemial Life Insurance Company of the United States, the banking and commerce dential Life Insurance Company, which has operated in Manitoba under a provincial charter since 1907 and which sought to be incoporated as the Prudential Life of Canada.

The United States company submitted that the Canadian company had appropriated its name, in spite of the fact that the Canadian company has fact that the Canadian company has been operating in this country longer than the American concern. Hon. W. T. White upon this ground frongly favored the bill, but in spite of this fact the bill was defeated by a vote of 23 to 17.

The promoters ask to have the bill reconsidered, and that then, if they get another hearing, they will accept the name of the Canadian Prudential Life.

tice that he will move in the commons that the order of the house authorizing the refund of fees paid on the bill to incorporate the Prudential Life of Canada be rescinded, and that the report of the banking and commerce committee, reporting the preamble of the bill as not proven, be referred back to the committee for further consideration.

raveling suit, a tailored costume of navy, black and tango hat, and carried a white prayer book. The brides-majd, Miss Winnie E. DeRochie, sister of the bride, wore a suit of king's blue, black picture hat and carried a white ivory prayer book, a recent gift from Ireland. Mr. Rdy Keenan, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman. After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's father, East Fourth street; where a dainty luncheon was served. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan left on the International Limited express on a trip to Toronto, Buffalo and other points, and on their return will reside in Cornwall. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farmer of Hawkesbury and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hart and Laby of Farran's Point.

C. P. R. LIVE STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL April 22.—At the C.P.R. live stock market receipts for the week ended April 13 were 550 cattle and 125 sheep and lambs, 1000 hogs and 1600 calves.

Prices scored a further decline of 25c per 100 lbs., due to the heavy offerings, buyers in most cases having filled their wants at the first of the week, and there fore the trade was slow. A few choice steers sold at $$ to $$.25. and the lower grades at from $$ to $$.50. Butchers cows brought from $4.75 to $7, and buils $$ to $7.50 per 100 lbs.

There was no further change in the condition of the market for hogs.
