

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.—This well conducted publication, we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the profession in Canada, and will prove interesting in the United States.—American Railway Review, September 20th, 1860.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.—This useful publication for September is before us. We heartily recommend it as a very useful Journal, not only to members of the legal profession, but also to Magistrates, Bailiffs, &c., and in fact every person who wishes to keep himself posted in law matters. It has been recommended not only by the highest legal authorities in this Province, but also in the United States and England. The present number is replete with useful information.—Welland Reporter, September 20th, 1860.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.—We have received the April number of this excellent publication, which is a credit to the publishers and the Province. Among a great variety of articles of interest, we especially note two, one on a series on the Constitutional History of Canada, the other upon a decision declaring the right of persons not parties to suits to search the books of the Clerks of Courts for judgments. The question arose out of a request of the Secretary of the Mercantile Protection Association.—Montreal Gazette, April, 25th.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, for May. Messrs. Maclear & Co., King Street, Toronto.—In addition to interesting reports of cases recently tried in the several Law Courts, and a variety of other important matter, this number contains well-written original articles on Municipal Law Reform; responsibilities and duties of School Trustees and Teachers; and a continuation of a Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada.—Thorold Gazette, May 19th, 1859.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.—The March number of this very useful and interesting Journal has been received. We think that the articles found in its pages are equal in ability to any found in kindred periodicals either in England or America. Messrs. Ardagh & Harrison deserve the greatest credit for the manner in which the editorial work is performed. We hope their enterprise may be as profitable as it is creditable.—Hastings Chronicle, May, 16th 1859.

The Upper Canada Law Journal. Maclear & Co., Toronto. This well conducted publication, we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the Profession in Canada, and will prove interesting in the United States.—Legal Intelligencer, Philadelphia, August 6, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal.—We have received the first number of the fifth volume of this highly useful Journal, published by Maclear & Co., of Toronto, and edited by the talented Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B.C.L., author of the Common Law Procedure Act, which has obtained classification along with the celebrated compilers of England and is preferred by the professionals at home to all others.

There is no magistrate, municipal officer, or private gentlemen, whose profession or education wishes the law to be well administered, should be without it. There are knotty points defined with a simplicity that the most ordinary minds can understand, and the literary gentleman will find in its pages, a history of the constitution and laws of Canada, from the assumption of British authority. Subscription, $4.00 a year, and for the amount of labour and erudition bestowed upon it, it is worth double the amount.—Victoria Herald, January 19, 1859.

The Law Journal of Upper Canada for January. By Messrs. ARDAGH and HARRISON. Maclear & Co., Toronto, $4 00 a year cash.

This is one of the best and most successful publications of the day in Canada, and its success prompts the editors to greater exertion. For instance they promise during the present volume to devote a larger portion of their attention to Municipal Law, at the same time not neglecting the interests of their general subscribers.—British Whig, January 18, 1859.

The Upper Canada Law Journal, for January. Maclear & Co., King Street East, Toronto.

This is the first number of the Fifth Volume: and the publishers announce that the terms on which the paper has been furnished to subscribers, will remain unchanged,—viz., $4 00 per annum, if paid before the issue of the March number, and $5 00 if afterwards. Of the utility of the Law Journal, and the ability with which it is conducted, ample testimony has been afforded by the Bar and the Press of this Province; so it is unnecessary for us to say much in the way of urging its claims upon the liberal patronage of the Canadian public.—Thorold Gazette, January 27, 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL AND LOCAL COURTS' GAZETTE, is the name of an excellent monthly publication, from the establishment of Maclear & Co., Toronto.—It is conducted by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Harrison, B. C. L., Barrister at Law.—Price $4 per annum.—Oshawa Vindicator, October 13th., 1858.

LAW JOURNAL, for November has arrived, and we have with pleasure its invaluable contents. In our humble opinion, the publication of this Journal is an inestimable boon to the legal profession. We are not aware of the extent of its circulation in Brantford; it should be taken, however by every member of the Bar, in town, as well every Magistrate and Municipal Officer, or would politicians find it unprofitable, to pursue its highly instructive pages. This journal is admitted by Trans-Atlantic writers to be the most ably conducted Journal of the profession in America. The Publishers have our sincere thanks for the present number.—Brant Herald, Nov. 18th., 1858.

The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, in deed, equals in its typographical appearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. $4 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal contains.—Port Hope Atlas.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, Maclear & Co., Toronto, January.—We have so frequently spoken in the highest terms of the merits of the above periodical, that it is scarcely necessary for us to do anything more than acknowledge the receipt of the last number. It is almost as essential to Municipal officers and Magistrates as it is to Lawyers.—Stratford Examiner, 4th May, 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for March. By W. D. Ardagh and Robt. A. Harrison, Barristers at Law. Maclear & Co., Toronto. $4 a year cash.—Above we have joined together for a single notice, the most useful periodical that any country can produce, and happy are we to add, that it appears to be well and deservedly patronised. We have so repeatedly alluded to its merits, that the reader will readily excuse any longer make-mention.—Whig, May, 18th 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, and Local Courts Gazette.

The August number of this sterling publication has been at hand several days. It opens with a well written original paper on "Law, Equity and Justice," which considers the questions so frequently asked by those who have been, as they think, victimized in a legal controversy:—"Is Law not Equity? Is Equity not Law?" Liability of Corporations, and Liability of Steamboat Proprietors, are next in order, and will be found worth a careful perusal. A "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," is continued from the July number; it is compiled with care, and should be read by every young Canadian.

The correspondence department is very full this month. There are letters from several Division Court Clerks, asking the opinions of the Editors on points of law with which it is important every clerk should be familiar. There are communications too from Justices of the Peace, asking information upon a great variety of subjects. All questions are answered by the Editors; and a glance at this department must be sufficient to satisfy every Clerk, Justice of the Peace, Bailiff or Constable that in no way can they invest $4 with so much advantage to themselves, as in paying that amount as a year's subscription to the Law Journal. The report of the case, "Regina v. Cummings," by Robert A. Harrison, Esq., decided in the Court of Error and Appeal, is very full, and of course will receive the careful attention of the profession. The Reports of Law Courts add greatly to the value of the publication.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, &c.

We are indebted to the publishers of this interesting law periodical for the numbers till this sale of the present volume, (Vol. 4.) commencing with January last. Its pages have been looked over by us with much interest. It is the only legal periodical published in Upper Canada, and is conducted with great ability. Each number contains elaborate original articles on professional subjects, mainly of importance to the bar of Canada, but also entertaining to that of the United States—communications on mooted points and replies thereto, serial instructions to magistrates and other officers—and numerous decisions of the Division and other Courts of Canada. We welcome it as an excellent exchange.—The Pittsburgh Legal Journal, Sept. 4th, 1858.

THE LAW JOURNAL, for February, has been lying on our table for some time. As usual, it is full of valuable information. We are glad to find that the circulation of this very ably conducted publication is on the increase—that it is now found in every Barrister's office of note, in the hands of Division Court Clerks, Sheriffs and Bailiffs.—Hope Guide, March 9th 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for July. Maclear & Co., Toronto. $4 a year.—To this useful publication the public are indebted for the only reliable law intelligence. For instance, after all the Toronto newspapers have given a garbled account of the legal proceedings in the case of Moses R. Cummings, out comes the Law Journal and speaks the truth, viz: that the Court of Appeal has ordered a new Trial, the prisoner remaining in custody.—British Whig, July 6, 1858.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, Toronto: Maclear & Co.—The July number of this valuable journal has reached us. As it is the only publication of the kind in the Province, it ought to have an extensive circulation, and should be in the hands of all business as well as professional men. The price of subscription is four dollars a year in advance.—Speculator, July 7, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal.—This highly interesting and useful journal for June has been received. It contains a vast amount of information. The articles on "The work of Legislation," "Law Reforms of the Session," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," are well worthy of a careful perusal. This work should be found in the office of every merchant and trader in the Province, being, in our opinion, of quite as much use to the merchant as the lawyer.—Hamilton Spectator.—June 8, 1858.

U. C. Law Journal, August, 1858: Toronto Maclear & Co.

This valuable law serial still maintains its high position. We hope its circulation is increasing. Every Magistrate should patronize it. We are happy to learn from the number before us that Mr. Harrison's "Common Law Procedure Acts" is highly spoken of by the English Jurist, a legal authority of considerable weight. He says it is "almost as useful to the English as to the Canadian Lawyer, and is not only the most recent, but by far the most complete edition which we (Jurists) have seen of these important acts of parliament."—Cobourg Star, August 11th, 1858.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.—The August number of the Upper Canada Law Journal and Local Courts Gazette, has just come to hand. Like its predecessors, it maintains its high standing as a periodical which should be studied by every Upper Canadian Law Student; and carefully read, and referred to, by every intelligent Canadian who would become acquainted with the laws of his adopted country, and see how these laws are administered in her courts of Justice.—Stratford Examiner, August 12th, 1858.
