

Riddell: Botanic Family Physician.

writers, e. g., that as minerals lie in the earth, minerals given as medicine must tend to bring the patients down to the earth, while as plants grow up and away from the earth, medicines from the vegetable kingdom must raise up the patient and keep him from the grave.

OSGOODE HALL.