

- REFERENDUM, Mr. Doherty and Mr. Burrell argue for reference of naval bill, 2, 3.
Constitutional necessity for, 1, 2.
- REPUBLIC OF CANADA, Proposal for, 386-93.
Reasons for, 387, 393.
- ROBERTS, LORD, Right on one basis, wrong on another, 27.
German resentment at speeches, 27.
- ROSEBERRY, LORD, Definition of imperialism, 274.
- ROUND TABLE, Proposal as to imperial resources, 348.
Exploitation of Dominion resources, 348.
Imperial ownership of Dominion resources, 364.
- RUSH, RICHARD, Connection with Monroe doctrine, 174-88.
- SALISBURY, LORD, Diplomacy of Behring Sea seizures, 59-112.
Description of British diplomacy, 144-6.
- SCARE OF 1909, Reason for, 29-39.
Party politics, 28-39.
- SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN, British diplomacy, 146.
- SEAL FISHERIES, See Behring Sea Fisheries.
- SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES, See Colonial Secretary.
- SEPARATION, See Canadian Sovereignty.
- SHIPPING, See Imperial Maritime Council.
- SISTER-STATES, Opinions of various statesmen, 202-4, 210.
Paper dealing with subject, 209-24.
Implication of the relation, 212.
No other alternative, 212-24.
Proposal for a Council, 213-5.
Proposal for federation, 215-20.
Proposals for confederation, 221-2.
Vagueness of proposals, 223.
- SOCIAL INFLUENCE, See London Atmosphere.
- SOUTH AFRICAN UNION, Contributions to British navy, 25.
- SOVEREIGNTY, See Canadian Sovereignty.
- SPAIN, Relation to Monroe doctrine, 172-85.
- TARIFF ARRANGEMENTS, Canada's accretions of authority, 227-8.
Canada's resources applied to imperial bargaining, 337.
Early British monopoly, 338.
Colonial freedom acquired, 338.
Chamberlain's proposals for control, 338.
Lord Balfour's committee, 339-47.
See Balfour's (Lord) Committee.
Common economic policy of the Allies, 350-4.
Enemy outlawry, 351.
See Imperial Preference; British Trade Corporation.
- TREATIES, Canning's denunciation of U. S. treaty, 1983, 114.
Effect of war upon, 114.
Of 1783 and 1818—See North Atlantic Fisheries.
See Tariff Arrangements; Macdonald, Sir John.