THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 21, 1911

TO THE PEOPLE OF WARDS 1, 2 AND 3.

A lot of opposition to the tubes has actually come from the southern portion of Ward 1 in the City of Toronto. Opponents of the viaduct have assiduously circulated a story among the business people and those resident along Queen-street east, over the Don, that Danforth-avenue, if opened up to the north, would take business away from them. On the contrary, Danforth-avenue, if opened, will give a population of 150,000 over the Don, the bulk of which will front on Queen-street east. But more than that the building of the viaduct will provide homes for a working population to be employed in the industries soon to be located in front of Ashbridge's Bay. The government at Ottawa and the City of Toronto under the advice of the board of trade, are getting ready to spend millions and millions on the making of the greatest harbor on Lake Ontario at Ashbridge's Bay. There is even a prospect of bringing ocean ships to this city at Ashbridge's Bay. But the great benefit the bridges have brought about was to make that locality over the Don accessible to every other part in the city and the last connecting link is the Bloor-street viaduct and it must be built now, and when it is built there will be a population of 150,000 over the Don and it will start to get there right away. That population will sustain Wards 1, 2 and 3. It will be the nearest population to Yonge-street as a business street and therefore every owner in these wards should not only vote, but should work for the passing of the bylaw that will give the Bloor-street viaduct. It will give Toronto a great and growing front east of Yonge-street as well as the present growing front to the west, and the annexation of North Toronto will do the same thing to the north; so that everybody in Wards 1, 2 and 3, from self interest, ought to vote for the viaduct. And the people in the west ought to vote for it because it will help to make the city greater and so will help them at the same time.

The people of the east have dealt generously with the people in the west in supporting their bylaws and are ready to do so hereafter, but there is such a thing as fair play and looking after one's own interest. Every voter in Wards 1, 2 and 3, who is looking for the viaduct and the tubes, and there will be prosperity come to them greater than anything in the past. Don't be a Wee Yorker.

In the meantime the Riverdale Ratepayers' Association ought to show, by a big public meeting, where they stand on the viaduct, on the municipal street cars and on the new harbor.

WHERE IS THE SLUMP?
The Toronto Globe and Telegram of yesterday recorded the sale of 25 feet on Wood-street in the mysterious Yonge-Carlton block, for $70,000 or $50,000 a foot. This completes the purchase of about 13 acres by one interest in Toronto for a great proposition of some kind—a proposition that on the line of The World's Information involves an expenditure of $10,000,000 in real estate and in building.

These papers also recorded the purchase of the corner of King and Yonge at $13,000 a foot frontage on King or $800,000 for the corner.

Over a million dollars was offered this week for a large block of land in the Township of York, owned by one family, and refused. This million was English money and would be followed by another million, devoted to laying out a model suburb with its own water, streets and roads.

There are at least offers of over $1000 an acre for 2000 other acres in the Township of York at this moment, which were not sufficiently enticing to owners. The Humber real estate proposition, which includes over 1000 acres, is based on a development of Toronto, which will realize for "the speculator" at least $40 a foot for 24 miles of frontage, and which will give a profit of $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 at the very least to the promoters. The purchases made by Sir Henry Pellatt, in the rear of East Toronto and Danforth-avenue, were made in whole or part for English investors.

THE GLOBE GETTING GROGGY.
The Globe is becoming woefully feeble and inaccurate in its civic efforts. It reminds one of the sporting column accounts of champions nearing their defeat, "getting groggy, sparring wildly, failing to land."

Yesterday's article on "The Progress of Toronto" is based on a report of a scheme of Ald. May's to annex—not

North Toronto, but all the territory south of Eglinton-avenue, between Deer Park and West Toronto, a very good idea, but one primarily intended to cloud the North Toronto issue. The report made by city officials on this scheme has been applied by The Globe to North Toronto, to the tubes, to the Bloor-street viaduct, and anything else The Globe disliked, except Ald. May's designated tract of territory.

City Treasurer Coady agreed to the annexation of North Toronto. It would have been annexed but for Controller Church, who yielded to some unknown argument at the critical moment. City Engineer Rust planned and recommended the Bloor-street viaduct, and for once The World is in agreement with Engineer Rust. Even The Globe will not venture to suggest that The World has any weight in the city engineer's department. The World has never failed to recognize the merits of the city officials, nor to support them in public-spirited policies. But the officials have rarely been able to escape the influence of reactionary aldermen and newspapers like The Globe.

And The Globe seizes this report on the tract of land south of Eglinton-avenue, and makes it the occasion for an attack on the progressive policies the city officials have supported, and with such arguments for the people of Riverdale, who want the Bloor-street viaduct, as the suggestion that somebody lying under the trees five miles away has invented this scheme of theirs. What do the people of Riverdale, and North Toronto, and East Toronto really think of The Globe?

The advice of the officials is good enough for The World on this occasion, and The Globe has only failed to state what that advice is.

Engineer Rust recommends the Bloor-street viaduct.

Treasurer Coady says North Toronto finances are very satisfactory.

The tubes are the plan of the civic railway department, at whose head is Mr. Cousins, one of the most brilliant young engineers in America.

Does The Globe adhere to its recommendation to vote according to the advice of the city officials?

THE INFANTS' HOME.
People who want to feel the true spirit of Christmas; who would like to find themselves in relation with the shepherds of Bethlehem; who think they would have done homage with the three wise men had the chance been given them; who believe they could join with heart and voice with the choir of angels in showing their love for the Babe that lay in a manger because there was no room in the inn, have the chance in Toronto this week to share in the brotherhood of all these. "Tasmuch as ye did it unto Me," is the word of assurance in this exercise of good giving.

The Infants' Home, where the little brothers and sisters of Him who had not where to lay His head are taken to-day, is in sore need of help from those who are able to make offerings of gold and frankincense and myrrh. Those who have the home in charge asked for $150,000, or about thirty places of copper from every person in Toronto, and so far they have received $101,000. The rest of that money can easily be made up before to-morrow night. Toronto raised $300,000 for the strong and well and able-bodied not so long ago. The cause is not empty from which those drops were poured. A few drops more for the tiny, frail and tender little ones will not diminish its flow.

There have been contributions sent in from as far as Red Deer, Alberta. Such is the sympathy of people everywhere for the helpless little ones. We ask readers of The World to send what they can to the Infants' Home fund to the secretary, Jarvis Building, 103 Bay-street. Do it now.

IN A HURRY NOW.
As usual the howl is going up from the Liberals about the spoils system and the partisan administration of official patronage. The World has all along advocated civil service reform, with a view to the establishment of permanency in the service and the elimination of partisanship. It has urged this upon Sir James Whitney as it has urged it upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The Liberals had fifteen years to put the civil service on a permanent basis. They refrained from using the opportunity, and now there is a great outcry because the Conservatives do not put things right in 15 weeks.

SOCIALIST ACTIVITIES.
Editor World: There is a large and rapidly increasing number of people in this city, who wish to be kept informed about everything that happens in local socialist circles.

This body of citizens includes (1) the bonafide members of various socialist organizations, (2) socialist sympathizers, (3) social and moral reformers, (4) trade unionists, (5) all sorts of radicals, (6) clergymen, and (7) woman suffragists and single taxers. Also, I might add, many Conservatives, who are interested in the socialist movement, the opposed to it.

We suggest that it will favorably affect your circulation to please such readers by printing more news about the socialist movement in Toronto, reporting socialist meetings, and otherwise describing socialist activities.

The socialists of this city intend to patronize the papers that are fairest to them, and to influence others to do the same.

Nine thousand of the enclosed leaflet ("The Class War") are being distributed from house to house in the working class districts of Toronto.

Walter Ford, 87 Hogarth-avenue.

THE ABBEY BESIDE THE FALLS.

Father Bernard Vaughan, who is paying the Loretto Abbey, beside the Falls of Niagara, wrote and recited these lines before a distinguished gathering, delighted with his poem. Beneath this Abbey's cloistered walls I hear Niagara roar and hiss, Like Lucifer from Heaven; it falls In sunlight to the dark abyss, Where tossed, as souls who rage and hate, The waters picture sin's dread state, Its sense of loss, when life is done.

And wall for Hope where Hope is none, The waters picture sin's dread state, Its sense of loss, when life is done.

Not so the scene where here I dwell In peace unknown to sinners' world, A peace rung out on Vesper bell To warn of depths where floods are hurled. How sweet it were from night to day For lives of men thus sweet away, To Hell, where Faith's of no avail.—Bernard Vaughan. Loretto Abbey, Niagara Falls, December 20, 1911.

EXCEPTIONAL OFFER OF OVERCOATS.

Modern business methods have rendered it possible for every one dependent on weekly earnings to be well dressed. Not only can men and women appear richly and tastefully in the latest and most fashionable styles, of good material and at cheap prices, but under the credit system now so popular, payment can be made by small weekly instalments. This departure from the older custom has proved a great boon to the small wage earner, since it enables him to have the best of both worlds at the time when they are most required.

None have developed the credit system to greater advantage than D. Moore, who does the largest business in the city on that basis. He carries a splendid stock of wearing apparel for both men and women good in quality and at the lowest possible prices payable at the rate of $1.37 or $3 per week. As an added attraction for the Christmas season he has placed on sale a special purchase of 500 high-class overcoats, in the newest makes, acquired on terms that permit of a retail price of $5 only. This may appear ridiculously low, but they are a genuine bargain. Just call at his store, 318 West Queen-street and be satisfied regarding this exceptional offer.

Pure Water Here to Stay
Pure water seems to be here to stay. It is a long time since any coil communit had been found this side of the intake pipe and the tests made by the health department continue to show that the water is clean. On Dec. 15 three tests made before the water was chlorinated and in each case coil were found and the bacterial count was high. Samples of chlorinated water taken on the same day showed no coils and as for bacteria, only one was found in three samples.

The new filtration plant is gradually being put into commission. Around 15,000,000 gallons are being filtered daily by it. Within three or four weeks it is expected that all of the water will be filtered.

BETTER FRUIT INSPECTION

Niagara Growers Memorialize Ontario Government—Banquet for Burrell.

S. CATHARINES, Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The fruit growers of Niagara district at a meeting this afternoon decided to tender a banquet to Hon. Martin Burrell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, who was for some years a prominent grower in Louth Township, close to the city, and who will be here for the Christmas holidays. It was also decided to extend an invitation to Hon. J. S. Duff. The principal subject of discussion was the growth and spread of little peach and yellow, which are becoming a great menace to growers. A resolution unanimously adopted provides for a memorial to the provincial government asking the appointment of an inspector to take charge of all inspection of fruit, and to have power to appoint and dismiss local inspectors, and to assess half the cost to townships.

SIDEWALKS FOR EARLSCOURT.

Temporary plank walks will be laid in Earls Court for the purpose of protecting the feet of the citizens of that district, which has been decidedly muddy of late. The board of control voted $2000 for that purpose yesterday for the purchase of plank for the equipment of a branch library there.

Marjory Clouston Married.
LONDON, Eng., Dec. 20.—(C.A.P.)—At Paris the marriage of Miss Marjory Clouston, daughter of Sir R. Clouston, president of the Bank of Montreal, to Dr. John Todd of McGill University, was celebrated very quietly here to-day. The civil ceremony was celebrated at the British consulate by Percy Inglis, the consul-general, at noon, and the religious ceremony was celebrated a few minutes later by Bishop Ormsby, in the presence of members of the family and some intimate friends, no invitations having been issued.

THE FORMER SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL TRAINING

gave a very pleasing exhibition in the assembly hall of the Foresters' building, on Tuesday night, before a large and appreciative audience. Mrs. H. B. Somers is ably assisted in these gymnastic classes by Miss Jessie Archer. As the new term opens Wednesday, Jan. 3, arrangements should be made early for registration. These classes are most commendable, and the terms are very reasonable.

Gas In The Winter
When gas stoves were first manufactured they were generally used in the summer only. But improvements have since made gas stoves a necessity all the year round. Here are three advantages of a gas range, which make it a necessity in your kitchen:

CLEANLINESS
TIME-SAVING
LABOR-BAVING
There is no other gift that would be appreciated as much as a gas range. There is no man who is not willing to do down the house work for his wife, especially when there is no extra cost. All our appliances are demonstrated in our salesroom daily.

T. M. Humble Jumps Into Ward Six Fight—Ald. Hilton Stays In Ring.

More heads have appeared on the municipal campaign horizon in the persons of John Wanless, Jr., T. M. Humble, Abraham Sher, E. Cooke, and Ald. Hilton has definitely decided to run again.

Mr. Humble, who is one of Toronto's best known advertising men, feels confident of getting a seat in Ward 6. He has lived in that district for the past 20 years and is well known there. He has not yet announced his platform in full, he told The World last night that he favors the tubes and would do his best to protect the interests of the citizens if elected. He will outline his platform in full at the Ward 6 nomination meeting to be held in Shirley Hall on Friday night.

"After that I shall conduct a whirlwind campaign," he said. Ald. Hilton has been in doubt for some time as to the advisability of his again taking up the cares of public office. His business takes much of his time and municipal politics get the best of him. He has decided, however, to run again, and to face a year of work in the city council.

Mr. Wanless has figured out a rather extensive platform. He is not antagonistic to tubes, but is making a thorough study of them before deciding whether or not to champion them. He favors the annexation of North Toronto and the Bloor-street viaduct. Other plans are, in brief, as follows: Pure, clean water; improved railway service; pure food and pure milk sanitary homes; more parks and playgrounds; good and clean roads; Toronto an ocean port; the attraction of new industries to the city; equitable assessment; technical schools and business methods in the administration of civic affairs.

Mr. Cooke is a mason-contractor, who will make his platform known on nomination day. He is in Ward 1, living on Logan-avenue.

Mr. Sher is running in Ward 3.

Banker Coughlin Released.

OTTAWA, Dec. 20.—After serving a year of his sentence, R. E. Coughlin, formerly manager of the Farmers' Bank branch at Athens, has been released from the penitentiary on parole. He was sentenced to three years for receiving stolen goods. The manager of the bank, on the eve of his own downfall, took an active part in the proceedings against the Athens branch manager. He will spend Christmas in the penitentiary.

The Farmers School of Physical Training gave a very pleasing exhibition in the assembly hall of the Foresters' building, on Tuesday night, before a large and appreciative audience.

Mrs. H. B. Somers is ably assisted in these gymnastic classes by Miss Jessie Archer. As the new term opens Wednesday, Jan. 3, arrangements should be made early for registration. These classes are most commendable, and the terms are very reasonable.

County of Halton v. Rutherford.—N. B. Gash, K.C., for plaintiff; McE. Young, K.C., for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order continuing the injunction restraining defendant from proceeding with the erection of a reinforced concrete bridge over Sixteen Mile Creek. On defendants undertaking that in case trial judge finds that work not in accordance with contract they will pull same down, the defendants are to be allowed to proceed and complete the concrete work of the arch ribs now partially built, at their own risk, but are restrained from doing any further work until the trial. Trial to be expedited and case to be set down for trial at Toronto non-jury sitting on Jan. 11, 1912. Costs in cause unless trial judge otherwise orders.

Trustees Halsebury. Methodist Church v. Turner.—H. B. Rose, K.C., for plaintiff; McKay, K.C., for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order restraining by injunction defendant from trespassing on the property of the plaintiffs on the northeast corner of the lot. Order: The owners, having dimmed, are entitled to possession of their premises, and damages will compensate the contractor. The validity of the dismissal should not now be determined, and the balance of convenience indicates that the injunction should be granted to the trial, leaving the owners to pay damages not only under undertaking, but under contract, if they are in the wrong. The order must rectify that the plaintiffs, alleging the dismissal of the contractor, desire to include him from the premises. Costs in cause unless trial judge otherwise orders.

Walter v. Toronto Board of Education.—C. C. Robinson for plaintiff; F. E. Hodgins, K.C., for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order to continue injunction restraining defendants from further proceeding to expropriate to their use the plaintiffs' land on Harbord-street. Counsel state that settlement has been agreed to dismissing motion and action without costs.

Patrick Kerwin presented his certificate of fitness to the court and was on the basis of the evidence, sworn in and enrolled as solicitor of the supreme court of judicature.

Brown v. Township of Peel.—C. L. Dunbar (Guelp) for plaintiff; D. Guthrie, K.C., for defendant; F. W. Harcourt, K.C., for the three infants. An action to recover damages for the death of plaintiff's husband, who was found dead on a road in the township, near

KINEMACOLOR AT MASSEY HALL.
The cost of travel is no longer an excuse to stay at home, since every-body can travel with "Kinemacolor" at Massey Hall during the week of Dec. 25, afternoon or evening. Until now the moving picture has been housed in humble quarters compared to the legitimate stage, and the environments have been of a corresponding character. Indeed the legitimate stage kept the moving picture at a distance as an undesirable relative. All this has now been changed, and the Kinemacolor pictures, dealing in subjects rich and interesting enough to constitute an evening's entertainment, have made a triumphant entry into the best amusement houses of the country. It is not of course the ordinary moving picture to which the doors of the great playhouses have been opened, but the Kinemacolor natural color pictures. A full explanation of the different pictures is given by Sydney Herbert, the noted lecturer, to bring out with greatest emphasis the scenes during the running of the film.

Sentenced for Murder.
RIVERFORD DU LOUP, Que. Dec. 20.—Julius Plourde and his brother Ovide were sentenced this morning for the murder of Louis Dion, who was shot the former while mixed up in a quarrel.
The death sentence was passed on Jules, while his brother, who gave him the cartridges with which the deed was committed, got ten years.
The men had nothing to say before sentence was passed. They are both young fellows under 25 years of age, and unmarried.
