North Toronto Council Asked to Take Action to Prevent Cows From "Mooing" Constables Should Wear Uniforms While on Duty-Notice of Annexation.

The first meeting of North Toronto Town Council since the voting on gouldings and annexation had been eagerly anterpated, and various rumors had been circulated as to the probable attitude of those councillors who favored the double-track and opposed annexation. It was not surprising, therefore, to find the council chamber crowded with ratepayers last hight when Mayor Brown took the chair.

Mayor Brown re.d a communication from Mayor Brown re da communication from Chy Clerk Littlejonn in connection with the conterence between the board of confrol and the North Toronto Town Council on July li, asking the latter body not to undertake any photic works involving great expenditure pending the decision of the Unitario kaliway and Municipal Board

Councillor Lawrence asked why the police were to be seen riding about in reply Councillor Muston distinct that it was occasionally necessary for a police officer to hide his identity when approaching potential wrongdoers, while Councillor Reid facetiously remarked that, now annexation was practically assured, the local police were imitating the city detectives by appearing in civinan dress.

Councillor Reid proposed and Councillor Lawrence seconded a resolution that whereas a plebiscite on the question of annexation had resulted in its favor, a special committee of the whole council should be called to discuss terms and submit them thru Solicitor T. A. Gibson to the city council.

Councillor Ball' proposed and Counciller Muston seconded an amendment that as the people of North Toronto had voted in favor of annexation, the city council should be formally notified to that effect, and that the town solicitor should take steps to carry the vote into effect, and prepare in conjunction with the city solicitor terms for submission to the Ontario Raliway and Municipal Roard.

Finally Councillor Reid's motion was made to include a clause that the town clerk officially notify the result of the annexation vote to the city clerk, and this received the unanimous support of council, which broke up at 11.39 p.m.

Not Deep Enough.

An influent an deputation from Broadway avenue, headed by Mr. Armstrong, complained that the sewers recently constructed were not deep enough to drain the celiars. A similar state of affairs was reported by Mr. Rennie of Smith avenue, and the engineer was asked to take immediate steps to visit ail such streets, in company with Consulting Engineer T. Aird Murray.

Laundry Permits.

Solicitor H. C. Fowler renewed his application on behalf of H. Wong for a laundry permit to No. 207 Yonge street. Mayor Brown, after remarking that no sign should have been displayed prior to the granting of a license, announced that the council were favorable to granting a conditional permit; that is, he would not be allowed to use the building for washing until connection with the sewer had been made.

Yonge-street Paving.
