IRISH IN CELLAR; QUEEN'S WINNERS

Kingston Team Came From Behind to Get Verdict in Senior Game.

Poor old St. Patricks. The Irishmen dropped into the cellar of the O.H.A. race with a loud thump last night. Ending the first period the Irish batters had a 2 to 1 margin over Queen's and looked as if they would breeze home. The Kingston outfit suddenly came to life, piled up a lead and walked away with the verdict, 9 to 7. The "knowing ones" were laying five to one that the Irish would win before the game and were laughing up their sleeves when anybody else.

It was not good hockey. Both teams were poor at the passing game, and there was a lot of loose work around the net. The same old trouble beat the Saints. They had a barrel of chances, but could do nothing with the rubber when inside. Fox rushed dozens of times, but the shooting was off color. Adams had the same fault, and the whole forward line failed to take time with their shots.

It was a spirit of "keep plugging" and wait for the luck to turn that got the Kingston University the verdict. They opened up the second round with a determination to win and kept right on going until the goal came. Every Queen's man was right on with the shot and when Crooks fell down on some long ones the rest came.

The defensive work on both sides was not up to the average. The forwards tore in time after time and only hurried work stopped a larger score.

At the end of the first period the Irishmen had a three to one lead. Queen's ran over St. Patricks in the second and third periods. Milan was scored seven goals while the Toronto team was getting two. While St. Patricks came back in the final round and outscored the visitors two to one, they could not cut down the lead.

Purvis and Paul were best for the winners. Purvis rushed repeatedly in the second and third periods. Milan was good, and the cooler, a new man, was fair. Sullivan checked well for the Saints, and Fox and Adams rushed often. The team play was lacking, but the boys made up for it by their earnestness.

The train from Kingston was four hours late in arriving, and it was an hour after the scheduled time before the game got under way.

The teams:
St. Patricks (7)—Goal, Crooks; defence, Fox, Adams; centre, Sullivan; right, Milne; left, Mulligan; sub, Quinn.

Two junior fixtures will be staged at the Arena today. In the afternoon St. Michael's College will play the East Toronto team in a prep college group game. St. Michael's displayed excellent hockey in their first two fixtures and will be favorites this afternoon. The youngsters in this group have surpassed the fans with the brand of hockey displayed.

De La Salle, who staged the great overtime game with Aurora Lee on Saturday night, met Beaches in a junior contest at night. If Beaches should turn in a victory it will put Aurora Lee right back in the running. The Irishmen cannot afford to take a chance and will put their strongest team on the ice.

East Riverdale will meet McCormick in the first game of the Senior Ladies' "Playground League" tonight on the East Riverdale rink. The team for Riverdale will be: Goal, Miss Brown; defence, Miss Powell and Green; rover, Miss Gray; centre, Miss Haack; right, Miss C. Walcott; left, Miss N. Walcott.

"THE PLAYGROUND SUPERVISOR."

This was the subject of a very fine paper read by Mr. L. Watson, of the Physical Education Society at Central "Y" on Tuesday morning. The speaker said that the playground equipment is of no significance beside the need of special "equipment" on the part of the supervisor, which should include personality, tact, and the ability to attract others and make leadership possible, executive ability, and the ability to secure discipline, common sense, courtesy, unlimited patience, robust health, enthusiasm, technical training in games, folk dancing, story-telling, etc. While organizing baseball and other sports for the older boys the supervisor should not neglect his work with the younger boys. He should not get into a rut, but make work from day to day so that children of all ages will expect an interesting program.

Mr. Watson was also instructive and interesting in his leadership during the physical training period. Mr. Charles Houtman, of Broadview "Y," has the assignment for the next meeting.
