U. S. SENATE PASSES WAR REVENUE BILL

Next Year and Four Billion in 1920.

Washington, Dec. 23.-Without a record vote, the senate late tonight passed the war revenue bill, reduced to raise $6,000,000,000 in 1919 and $4,000,000,000 in 1920, as compared with the levy of $8,200,000,000 for next year proposed in the bill passed by the house three months ago.

Several riders were added to the bill, but no important changes in the finance committee's draft were made except the reinstatement of so-called day at the navy yard, and will luxury taxes on a number of articles costing above fixed standards.

Among the riders adopted were provisions for one month's pay bonus to men discharged from the military establishment after signature of the armistice; extension of the Reed bone dry" law to the District of Columbia, and for 100 per cent taxes on political campaign contributions in

Germany Weeps Over Sordid Tars

London, Dec. 23.—Commenting on the handing over to the British of the German submarine U-9 by the German crew, who seized this opportunity to earn 500 marks per man paid by Germany in compensation for taking the boat to-England, The Cologne Volks Zeitung says:

"Even when the astounding history of the Russian rubles given to the German people's deputies was related we had patience. We had, indeed, still one consolation. Thru this night of universal misfortune the splendor of our armies' fame glistened with friendly radiance never to disappear so long as men walked upon earth. Shall we now be robbed of this consolation in the solitude and silence of our misery? Is it possible in Germany that even "red" sailors could have sold for 500

"On behalf of your comrades in Canada, I have the proud privilege of sending Christmas greetings this year to a victorious Canadian army, occupying the territory of a conquered foe. Last year you looked back upon a year of desperate, if glorious, fighting, and forward to a doubtful issue, for the enemy was known to have gained new strength and to be us blow against us. Today you can look back upor year in which the British arms bore adversity with fortifude, refused to despond when things were at their darkest, returned to the offensive at the critical moment, and in three months of fighting such as the world never had seen before, won a victory unexampled alike for the glory won and for the service rendered by it for humanity.
