Secretary Garfield Declares That U. S. Government is in Earnest in Its Prosecution of the Standard Oil Company.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Aug. 4.-In an address last night before the chamher of commerce, James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior, alluded to the fine imposed on the Standard Oil Co. at Chicago vesterday. He said: "The decision and fine are the end of a long fight, and will teach the people of this country that no man, hig or little, is above the law. The Standard Oil Co. and others like that great corporation have gone ahead on the theory that they were so powerful that they could do things the ordinary corporation could not. We are showing them that they cannot." Asked if the prosecution could collect the fine, Secretary Garfield re-"Yes, you may be assured we can. And there are ten thousand more counts hanging over them on which similar fines can be levied." John D. is Dumb. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 3.-John D. Rockefeller, upon learning of the fine imposed upon the Standard Oil Co., to-day, said he had no comment

World's Maple Blossoms have been thoroly enjoying themselves. Two newspaper men interviewed the party on the steamer, and gave a comical report. It was good-natured raillery, but wide of the mark so far as the suggestion that the young ladies were any trouble is concerned. For amateur travelers, they have excellent adaptability, as might be expected from sterling Canadian stock, and the man in charge would think nothing of taking them round the world.

Friday they had a few pleasant incidents going down the river. including a sight of the Tunisian bound for Montreal with hundreds of immigrants on board, whose vociferous cheering as the vessels passed stirred all hearts. The graceful courtesy of ships at sea as they dipped their flags was like a parting adieu, and some eyes were moist and some hearts full at thought of the new life both forward

Another fine sight was a magnificent thunderstorm with spectacular lightning flashes and great gun detonations in the clouds. It became so dark and thick the steamer had to lie to, so delaying arrival at Quebec and preventing a landing there. All the ladies are delighted with the trip so far.

Miss Allin writes: "I take this opportunity to thank my many kind friends in assisting me to secure the trip to London given by The World.
