DETROIT KIDNAPPING CASE.

Demented Young Man Worth $600,000 Said to Have Been Abducted.

HAD JUST ATTAINED HIS MAJORITY

And It is Suspected That His Relatives Are Trying to Get Him Out of the Country.

Montreal, June 21.—(Special.)—The Montreal police have been notified to be on the lookout for a young man who has been kidnapped from Detroit. The case is a strange one, as it is supposed the boy was abducted by his mother. Moses Fowler Chase, aged 21 years, alleged to be mentally incompetent, and reputed to be worth $600,000, was abducted from the Hotel Cadillac last Sunday night. He had been a patient at the Sanitarium in Flint, and was en route to his home in Lafayette, Ind., accompanied by his father, Frederick Chase, a lawyer. When the father and son arrived there, a young man met them at the depot and took the youth to the Cadillac. The father was unsuspicious. Sunday night a carriage drove up to the hotel, and young Chase was taken to the Cleveland boat, which, in the company of his aunt and two unknown men, he boarded. On reaching Cleveland the party took a train for Cincinnati. From there they went east to Albany, N.Y., where the private detective that the father had employed to watch them lost the party. Extradition papers were to-day made out in anticipation of the parties' arrest by the New York authorities.

The fortune that the boy possesses is revertible to the aunt upon his death, which, it is alleged, furnished the motive for the supposed abduction. The police of New York, Boston, Portland and Montreal have been notified to be on the watch for the party, who are believed to be on their way out of the country.

THEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

The People Sought Are Stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria.

New York, June 21.—(Associated Press Report.)—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Duhme, who are accused of spiriting Moses F. Chase away from Detroit in expectation, as alleged, of securing a portion of young Chase's $600,000 inheritance, are stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria with young Chase. They went to police headquarters last night when they heard of the kidnapping charge and told their story. It was in effect that young Chase was ill, and that his father, as alleged, had been guilty of neglect. The police said they saw no reason for holding the Duhmes. The young man made one statement which impressed the police. It was that his father had never informed him that he was heir to a large fortune.

Frederick Chase is a comparatively poor man, while the Duhmes are very wealthy.

A Mean Trick.

Someone played a mean joke on a party of bicyclists who visited Munro Park. Mrs. Wilson keeps a refreshment stand near the entrance to the park, and provides a rack for the use of bicyclists. A number, including several ladies, left their wheels in the rack. On returning they found that someone had loosened the handle-bars and saddles. Those who did not discover the fault received nasty falls while trying to mount their wheels.

HAMILTON NEWS

TORONTO FIRM THE LOWEST.

Rogers Coal Company Will Supply the City's Dusky Diamonds This Year.

PEREGRINE GETS WOOD CONTRACT.

Parrott Still Refuses Spiritual Consolation—Fatal Fall Down Stairs—General News.

Hamilton, June 21.—(Special.)—The city will have to pay more for its coal this year than it did last. At the meeting of the Fire and Water Committee this evening tenders for the year's supply were opened. The Rogers Coal Company, Toronto, was the lowest for every kind asked for, and it was decided to accept that company's tender. The prices are as follows: Grate, $4.33 per ton; egg, $4.67; stove and nut, $4.67; Lehigh, $5.85; Reynoldsville select lump, $3.15; slack, $2.08. The prices paid last year were about 70 cents a ton less.

J. M. Peregrine got the order for wood, his price being lowest, as follows: Hard No. 1, $5.40 a cord; pine, $3.75.

It was decided to put a water main into the Hamilton Driving Park, the estimated cost being $50. The committee decided to go on at once with the work of building cinder paths on each side of the pipe line to the beach pumping house. They will be for the use of bicyclists, and the estimated cost is $250.

In the High Court.

At the High Court this afternoon Justice Rose dismissed the action of Malone v. Walker, and gave Martin Malone, barrister, a humiliating lecture for the manner in which he attended to the late Mr. Lyon's business. The action was brought ostensibly by Malone's children to set aside a judgment.

The case of Foley v. Township of East Flamboro was settled out of court, on the advice of the judge, the plaintiff accepting $350 and costs.

Pray Got the Berth.

The Board of Governors of the Hamilton Cemetery met this evening and appointed W. R. Pray, late undertaker, assistant superintendent of the cemetery, at a salary of $720 a year. The other applicants were: Alex. Craig, jr., Samuel Aylett, Norman Thompson, J. P. Galloway, Toronto, Ed. Cleversley and Alfred Best.

Death Followed Fall.

David A. Sherk, 136 James-street north, tripped on the end of his nightshirt this morning, just after arising and fell downstairs. He felt a pain in his head, but did not think he was seriously hurt, and went on about his duties. About 2 o'clock he took seriously ill and died in a few minutes. A blood vessel bursting caused death. Deceased was 44 years of age, and was manager of the McLaughlin Carriage Co.

Scaffold Erected.

The scaffold for the execution of Ben Parrott was erected to-day in the jail yard. Sam Landers, secretary of the Salvation Army, visited Parrott to-day. The murderer said he did not regret what he had done, and reiterated his statement that he did not believe in "Heaven, hell or God." While the Army man prayed, Parrott laughed and kicked his feet playfully. Parrott said afterwards: "I will not repent; I'll die bravely, just as I've lived." Mr. Landers has visited him oftener than any other man—every week since he was arrested—and he has given up all hope of converting the murderer. He will not visit him any more.

Minor Matters.

Matthew Connors of the Queen's Hotel was fined $30 to-day for keeping liquor for sale without a license. W. H. Warnke, grocer, was fined $20 for the same offence.

The Ladies' Altar Society of St. Mary's Church held a lawn social at the Presbytery grounds this evening. Nelligan's orchestra furnished music.

F. B. Bennett, accountant in the Traders Bank, will be married in St. Catharines to morrow to Miss Nellie Johnson of that city.

Mr. C. H. Wallace, late assistant City Engineer, has gone to Chicago. He will spend some days inspecting the drainage and other big works there before going to England.

Thomas Cobb has been elected president of the Stationary Engineers' Association.

Woman's World...

Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers.

Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

One of the most fashionable and most charming of June weddings was that which took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. James' Cathedral, when Miss Ethel Mulock, daughter of Hon. William Mulock, Postmaster-General, became Mrs. Arthur Kirkpatrick. It was an ideal bridal day, sunshiny and bright, with a deliciously cool breeze to temper the heat. Long before 2 o'clock, the gaily striped awnings over the Cathedral entrance, that always proclaim a wedding, had attracted an immense number of spectators, eager to see the bride and her guests; while within, the sacred edifice presented a brilliant and gorgeous spectacle. The chancel was converted into a perfect bower of green, starred with big marguerites, and the bright colors of the gowns and hats of the hundreds of guests filling the pews to their utmost capacity made an unusual and brilliant scene.

All the elite of Toronto were present, and eclat was lent to the affair by the presence of Lady Laurier, wife of the Premier of the Dominion, who came down for the occasion. Judges, lawyers, professors, clergymen and distinguished men in the professions and business were present, together with many out-of-town guests.

At 2 o'clock the bridal party arrived and proceeded slowly up the aisle to the strains of the organ. The four bridesmaids, Miss Amy Wright, Miss Rosamond Boultbee, Miss Jennie King, Miss Hazel Wright, were prettily gowned in embroidered white mousseline de soie over turquoise blue silk. They wore smart hats of maize silk straw, trimmed with net and ribbon, and carried large bouquets of bridesmaids' roses, tied with ribbon. Two little pages, Miss Marjorie Kirkpatrick, niece of the groom, and Master Arthur Ryerson, youngest son of Dr. Stirling Ryerson, and the bride's cousin, were charming little figures in the procession. Miss Theodora Kirkpatrick of Coolmine was maid of honor in attendance upon the bride.

The bride was, of course, the central figure as she moved up the aisle leaning upon her father's arm. She was beautifully gowned in rich duchesse satin, simply made and elegant in its simplicity. The tunic opened over a skirt having a flounce of accordeon-pleated chiffon, daintily edged; the perfectly fitting bodice of the satin had a guimpe of exquisitely shirred and tucked snowy mousseline de soie. A splendid diamond and pearl star, the gift of the groom, was worn in the corsage. Crowning the dark head was a coronet of orange blossoms, from which fell the filmy folds of the bridal veil, and a shower bouquet of white exotics completed the lovely toilet.

* * *

Mr. Sydney Band assisted the groom, and Messrs. Gordon Osler, Alex Creelman of Listowel, J. H. Plummer and Stuart Wilkie acted as ushers. There was a choral service under the direction of Dr. Ham, and Bishop Sweatman, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hope of St. Mary's Anglican Church, performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony the bride and groom received at the residence of the bride's father, which was elaborately and beautifully decorated for the occasion. The little reception room in which the young couple received was completely arched with marguerites and shut off with a pretty lattice work of green; they were assisted by Mr. Mulock and Mrs. Mulock. Mrs. Mulock wore a handsome violet costume with bonnet to match.

* * *

The arrangements were perfect, and in spite of the great number of guests there was no crush, everything having been most carefully arranged beforehand. Upstairs on a long narrow table were arranged the innumerable and costly wedding gifts, and among them were lovely silver candelabra, salvers and ornaments, a complete dinner set, quantities of dainty china, cabinets containing complete sets of knives and forks, vases, cut glass, pictures and an endless variety of pretty things. Tiny boxes of white confetti were given to the guests to shower upon the bride instead of the regulation rice.

The going away gown was a very smart affair; it was of dark green cloth, trimmed with bands of green satin piquet, the tunic opening over a white accordeon-pleated flounce of silk. The stylish little Eton coat opened over a gold-embroidered white satin vest, and the smart toque was of green, with white wings, lace and ribbon trimming.

Among those present were: Lady Laurier, Mrs. Clifford Sifton, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Arthurs, Mrs. Cawthra, Miss Cawthra, Mrs. Victor Cawthra, Mr. George Dickson, Mrs. Dickson, Judge MacMahon, Mrs. MacMahon, Dr. Goldwin Smith, Mrs. Goldwin Smith, Mr. John Hoskin, Mrs. Hoskin, Professor Baker, Mrs. Baker, President Loudon, Mrs. Loudon, Col. Miss Katherine Merritt of St. Catharines is in town for the Historical Exhibition.

The closing concert of the Toronto College of Music will be held on Monday evening, June 26, at 8 p.m., in the Pavilion Music Hall.

Professor G. H. Needler of Toronto University was yesterday married to Miss Chisholm, daughter of Judge Chisholm of Berlin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl Smith. Dr. and Mrs. Needler will reside on Avenue-road on their return to town.

Yesterday afternoon, after the wedding, Lady Laurier, Mrs. Clifford Sifton and Mrs. Eyer of Ottawa visited the Historical Society's exhibition in Victoria College. They were received by Mrs. Forsyth Grant, Mr. Coyne, Miss Fitzgibbon and others, were shown round the various rooms, and expressed themselves as highly delighted with the exhibition. Lady Laurier wore a handsome gown of violet brocade, trimmed with lovely lace and touches of velvet. Mrs. Sifton's gown was of dainty green silk, having a guimpe of yellow chiffon. The shirred sleeves of the chiffon were strapped with black velvet, and she wore a smart toque to match. Among the other visitors were: Mrs. Goldwin Smith; Mrs. Willison, in a lovely dove-colored gown, with touches of black and white, picture hat; Mrs. Plunkett McGann, in grey, with black picture hat; Mrs. Riddell, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. S. J. Wood.

Last night the attendance at the exhibition was very large, and the following ladies and gentlemen furnished music up in the assembly hall: Miss Millie Marks, Mr. Fairweather, Miss Evans, Mr. Harry Maughan, Mrs. Youngheart, Mr. M. Solomon and Mr. Oscar Wenbourne. Mrs. Julie Wyman was unable to attend owing to a call from town. To-night there will be a school children's entertainment, under the direction of Mr. J. L. Hughes.

GALLIA MAY FLOAT TO-DAY.

The Big Ship is Nearly Out of the Mud and Sand Pumps Will Now Be Operated.

Montreal, June 21.—(Special.)—To-morrow may see the steamer Gallia entirely afloat. Such was the opinion given by Mr. John Kennedy, harbor engineer, this morning, who had had an interview with one of the workers at the boat. The after part of the vessel is in clear water from the funnels aft, and the forward part is gradually lowering. The harbor dredge is to cease working this evening and then sand pumps will be employed until the final and much-desired floating is accomplished.

Brought Home for Burial.

The remains of the late Mary J. McCullough, who died at Foxcroft, Maine, last Sunday, arrived in the city yesterday, and were conveyed to the undertaking establishment of W. H. Stone, Yonge-street, whence the funeral will take place to-day to St. James' Cemetery. Deceased was the widow of the late George McCullough of Danforth-road, Scarboro' and formerly was a resident of Toronto.

Travelers visiting Brantford will find Alf. Fleming's restaurnt, 44 Market-street, a particular nice spot to get a particularly nice lunch. ed.

Constables Crowe, Snider and Lillburn last night arrested Richard Donohur and William and James Douglas. The trio of prisoners are charged with frequenting an alleged house of ill-repute kept by Annie O'Brien in the rear of 8 Sheppard-street. These arrests followed the raid of Mrs. O'Brien's home on Tuesday night.

MEASLES APPEAR AT NIAGARA CAMP.

companies. The officers in camp are: Lt.-Col. J. McKay; majors, G. Hollinsworth and L. Irving; captains, A. C. Mackay, A G. Farrell, W. B. Munro, R. Musgrove, J. M. Balderson; paymaster, Major James Craig; adjutant, Capt. H. J. Mackie; quartermaster, Major G. Williams; surgeon-major, D. P. Lynch.

The Fifty-Sixth.

The 56th Battalion is known as the Lisgar Rifles from Grenville, with headquarters at Prescott. It was organized April 12, 1867. The chief officers in camp are: Lieut.-Colonel J. B. Checkley; Major D. W. Beckett; captains, G. A. Drummond, J. Morrison, D. A. Cameron, H. Hutchins, W. F. W. Carstairs, G. A. Walker; paymaster, Major J. S. Huntington; adjutant, Captain W. H. Burritt; quartermaster, Capt. J. A. Tripp; surgeon-major, J. A. McCammon. This is a seven-company battalion. They came in this morning at 9.

The Lisgar Rifles are composed chiefly of Irishmen and are known on the grounds as the "Irish Boys in Green."

A Scotch Lot.

The 59th Battalion is called the "Stormont and Glengarry" volunteers. In this battalion nearly all the men are Scotch, so that "hoot mon" is a common expression in the ranks. It is a seven-company battalion, with headquarters at Cornwall. The chief officers in camp are: Lieut.-Colonel Roderick R. McLennan; majors, G. Baker, J. L. Nelles; captains, H. A. Morgan, F. Trousdale, G. Runions, R. Smith, A. G. F. Macdonald, F. D. Macnaughton; paymaster, Major H. Turner; quartermaster, Capt. A. Denny; surgeon-major, E. A. Graveley.

Stuck at Cornwall Wharf.

The 59th came in at 10 a.m. They were ready for transportation on Monday night, but had to remain on the Cornwall wharf till noon Tuesday. They were all night on board the Columbian on the trip over. This battalion compose the "Hielan' laddies" of the camp.

The 59th band is made up of 20 pieces and four pipers. Eddie Kerr and Billy Evans play the trombone and Jimmy May beats the big drum. When they practise, the pipes seem to own the air. One of the pipers has a peculiar habit of stepping around on his toes as he playes. A spectator remarked, "He walks like a lame rooster in a wet barnyard." A. D. Murchison leads the band.

The 16th on Deck.

The 16th Battalion were due last night, but owing to the fact that the steamer Argyle was delayed at the Murray Canal on account of heavy winds and sea, they did not get here till 8 this morning.

MEASLES IN CAMP.

Three Cases of This Contagious Disease Have Made Their Appearance at Niagara.

There are three cases of measles in camp. The patients, along with their orderly, are in an isolated tent, labelled, "Quarantine," and stamped with the Geneva Red Cross. It is on the hospital ground, where three other tents and four marquees make up the quarters.

Those down with the measles are: Sergt. Philiips, No. 1 Co. 29th Batt.; Corp. Beattie, No. 1 Co. 31st Batt., and Pte. Moffat, No. 3 Co. 31st Batt.

Pte. Collins, No. 1 Co. 31st Batt., is the orderly of the tent. He has not the measles, but his chum, Pte. Moffat, has, so Collins came along to keep him company.

Phillips gave up last Thursday evening; he'd had them before; Beattie on Friday morning, and Moffat Friday night. The patients were at once put into a tent by themselves, and commanded to stay there. They were fed principally on milk, but had a square meal to-day. They are on the mend.

Asked how they got along, Corp. Beattie said it was very irksome remaining in the tent. "I got up one day and walked around outside, but I was soon run under cover again. You might just as well be in jail."

"What caused you to get the measles?" The World asked.

"They say it was in the blankets, but I got mine, I think, from a heavy cold," was the unsophisticated answer of the corporal.

As a person drew near the tent, an occupant sang out, "Look out, chappie; we've got the measles. Don't come too near!"

The battalions to which the patients belong left camp on Saturday, but the sick will have to stay in quarantine till next Tuesday.

Measles Not New.

This matter of measles is not new to a camp of instruction, as The World ascertained yesterday. The infection is conveyed by means of the Government blankets, that are issued, a pair to each man. It is a strange, but real fact, that measles have broken out in every camp for years past, and presumably from the same cause.

The tradition is that the blankets of one camp are sent to Stanley Barracks, and there washed out on the broad common. The solution used is sulphur. But this, as every medical man knows, is not efficacious in destroying measles germs; though thousands of housewives all over Canada set great store by the supposed virtues of sulphur.

Proper Disinfection Needed.

If the health of the volunteers and of their relatives is to be safe-guarded, some stringent measures must be instituted. The most radical and wisest, though doubtless expensive mode, would be to burn the blankets, but this would not meet with general approval. There is another mode. It is to wash the blankets in bi-chloride of mercury, and to wash them thoroughly. This poison will suddenly put an end to the germ's career, and effectually stop his devastating course.

The experiment has been tried in this case with success. Forty or 50 blankets, taken from the tents where the infected soldiers were found, were washed in a 1-in-2500 solution of bi-chloride of mercury. The tents themselves were fumigated with sulphur. These 40 or 50 blankets are effectually rid of the measles, but what of the others?

Who can tell if some of the blankets used in other tents of the 31st, and of the 39th Batt. are not saturated with measles germs? The blankets used by the first camp are now being used by the present camp. They had not been washed during the interval, and no one will accuse the measles germs of being shortlived. Would it be surprising to find them hop up in other blankets, in other battalions, in this camp?

Where Did They Come From?

Then comes the question, Where did these measles germs come from? Did they enter camp during the first camp for the first time? It is thought not. It is supposed that they have been lying inactive, and for all intents and purposes dormant for years. They have gone through, perhaps, three or four traditional washings, and bobbed up serenely every time, only to get their work in during the last camp. This is not their first camp, by a good deal.

It takes but a moment's reflection to perceive how far-reaching this matter is. The soldier who gets sick in camp is easily taken care of; but, suppose one does not feel the work of the germ till he gets home; then there is a whole family, perhaps a whole community, exposed to the disease.

In view of these facts, more caustic measures are required to stamp out the germs that have been having it all their own way for now a long time.

Everybody is Mum.

With this thought in mind, The World approached Surgeon-Major Nattress, P.M.O., this afternoon, and asked him to discuss the question of measles, but Dr. Nattress politely, but firmly said:

"I have nothing to say."

This is but a sample of the reticence of the staff officers.

Of another officer The World enquired:

"What was done with the blankets that were used in last camp?"

"I don't know," was the answer, followed by, "That is a hard question to get answered."

"Why?" asked the innocent reporter.

"Oh, I don't know," answered the officer. The interview ended there.

CAMP NOTES.

A gun will henceforth be fired at reveille, retreat and last post.

At least six hours a day will constitute the drill for this camp. The brigadiers of each brigade will use his own discretion in the allotment.

At 4.30 p.m. to-day P.V.O., Major Hall, inspected the chargers of the mounted officers of the 14th and 15th Brigades, and found all correct.

The field hospital is situated in the rear of the supply buildings, to the southwest, and is during the day distinguished by the "Geneva Cross Flag," and at night by a red lantern.

To-morrow at 11 a.m. the medical officers of the different corps will report to Surgeon-Major Nattress and be instructed in their duties.

An Amusement Committee, consisting of one officer from each battalion, meets the chief staff officer, Major Macdougall, to-day to arrange schemes for the men's recreation.

The R.C.D. are acting as mounted police. They patrol the town from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and see that no man goes to town improperly dressed or without a pass.

Many flags are flown in camp. By a flag one knows a spot. In front of the tent of the officer commanding the division is a Union Jack. The field hospital has a white flag with a red cross. The P. O. flies a red and white flag, while the supply and pay departments have a blue pennant, with a red disk.

Major H. M. Pellatt, Q.O.R., has come to camp, and is a conspicuous figure as Col. Otter's only A.D.C., mounted on a beautiful grey horse.

Four men from each battalion will daily be put through stretcher drill, from 10 a. m. to noon, and from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The 14th Brigade begins rifle practice at Fort Missisaga to-morrow morning.

Markers for the rifle butts will be detailed to-morrow at 8.30 a.m. Seventeen men will go from the 14th Brigade and 16 from the 15th. These will do their drill at the Old Fort at the lakeside, where they will also sleep.

This camp the ammunition will be served out at the supply department to one battalion at a time. The rifles will be given out at the Fort. But the 16th and 49th are armed with the Lee-Enfield already.

Corporal Johnson is acting as divisional office clerk till Sergt. Manless comes back to-day.

Visiting Pressmen.

The members with their ladies of the Eastern Townships Press Association, who are en tour for a week, returned from the Muskoka Lakes yesterday afternoon and are quartered at the New Arlington. They speak in glowing terms of a delightful outing in the Highlands. Last evening they were the guests of Mr. J. T. Johnston, managing director of the Toronto Type Foundry Co., Limited, at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Centre Island, and were royally entertained. To-day the party goes to Niagara Falls.

English Army Blacking gives a jet black lasting polish.

Horses Recovered.

The two horses stolen from John McNamara's stable in York Township on Saturday night have been recovered by County Constable Burns. The animals were found wandering on the third concession of Etobicoke. The county police are still on the lookout for the valuable three-year-old black mare stolen from Daniel Hendrick, lot 17, third concession, Markham Township. A buggy was also taken from the latter place. It has three new spokes in hind wheel.

Honored Burial.

The funeral of the late Bert Scott, who died from blood poisoning in St. Michael's Hospital, took place yesterday afternoon from the home of his parents, Pape-avenue, to the Necropolis. The pall bearers were six members of the Sons of England band, a large contingent of the order also being present. The regalia costume worn by deceased was placed on the casket, and there were many floral offerings. The F. W. Matthews Co., undertakers of West Queen-street, had charge of the funeral.
