With great promptness and forethought the Supreme Chief Ranger of the Indepea dent Order of Foresters has issued an official circular to all members of the order states that members of the order who are British subjects have a right to enter the army, navy or militia of Great Britain, or army, navy or militia of Great Britain, or any of her colonles, and serve their country wherever they may be sent, and that from the date of such service they shall be registered in the "preferred" class, and shall only pay such rates as are set out in the laws of the order. The financial secretary of each court has been instructed to transfer any brother who may be in the "hazardous" class to the "ordinary" or "preferred" class to the "ordinary" or "preferred" class to the service of his Queen and country. All courts are instructed to furnish the Supreme Secretary with the name of each brother in active service, together with the name of his regiment and ship, so that the Supreme officers can keep track of such brethren, and personally communicate with them from time to time. The Executive Council cail upon the various courts to give every attention and care, and render fraternal aid, if necessary, to the families of those brethren who have responded to the call of duty. All members of the Canadian contingent may join the L.O.F. without a payment of any fee whatsoever. The Supreme Chief Ranger, Dr. Oronhyatekha, has arranged to have all such applicants examined by the medical officer free of charge, and the Chief Ranger himself will make all members of the contingent Foresters at sight, whenever they make application. The offer of the L.O.F. is an exceedingly generous one, and no doubt every member of the Canadian contingent will avail themselves of Oronhyatekha's magnificent tribute to those who are going to fight the battles of their country in a fardistant land. any of her colonies, and serve their country
