BERLIN, Aug. 19.—Landhut, in Silesia, the seat of an important linen industry, is first in the field wit ha woman tiler. The town recently began the construction of a children's hospital, and the contract for roofing the building was given to a local master. As he has meantime been called up for military service, his wife has taken up his business and is now daily at work on the building, clad in overalls.

REMANDED FOR WEEK.

Stanley Graham was remanded until the 22nd, on bail of $500, in the police court yesterday, on a charge of theft. Accused is alleged to have decamped to the States a year ago with $34.95 of the Bates & Dodds Co., for whom he was a bookkeeper.

A great deal of interest has already been shown in the writings by Eunice Gunn Ramsey on Toronto's early history. Her story this week is about the R.C.Y.C.

ON WHOLESALE MARKET

Corn Sold Yesterday at Ten to Seventeen Cents Per Dozen.

BLUEBERRIES PLENTIFUL

Peaches Are Slow, as the Quality is Not Meeting the Demand.

Lawton berries were not shipped in very heavily yesterday, but the demand for this fruit is so poor the price did not firm any; in fact, it was somewhat easier, the berries selling at 12c to 14c per Muskmelons were also somewhat easier the bulk of them being such poor quality the buyers do not want them. The 11quarts sold at 35c to 50c, a few better quality bringing 60c, while the Fordhooks sold at 90c to $1, and the Osage and Hoodoos at $1.25 to $1.50 per 16-quart, some 27's of ordinary quality going at $1 to $1.25. to $1.25.

Starring in New Film.

It is a source of considerable comment among the people of the Triangle coast studios that Mae Marsh, the Triangle star, has such a quick sense of characterization. No matter how subtle or unusual the character she is called upon to portray, she is always prepared with detailed and consistent manner or interpretation.

In "The Wild Girl of the Sierras," her newest picture, she has the role of a young woman who has grown almost since babyhood alone in the woods. She scarcely knows what
