GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

CLEVER COMEDY
DRAMA NOW
AT OPERA HOUSE

A Regular Riot of Fun—One More Chance to Enjoy It—Other Big Features—A Great Programme Booked for Tomorrow.

There is still another opportunity to see the bright comedy drama, "Bring Home The Bacon," which is being staged in the Opera House by Leigh & Company. This is a cleverly enacted original comedy and it has been making quite a hit. In addition to its act, Frank Mansfield will entertain with a number of catchy selections on a lullaby, and will also sing a couple of solos. Kay and Elinore, two person-ality girls, will appear in a bright and amusing comedy, "The House of the Seven Gables," which will be staged in the afternoon. The programme for tomorrow afternoon has as a big feature "The House of the Seven Gables," a great comedy picture made at the Opera House at work with an entire local cast. It will also show "close-ups" of the audience at every performance. This is a real chance for patrons to see themselves on the screen. In addition, the "ville programme" will be as follows: Ethel Mae Hall and Company, who will offer a riotous comedy one act play "The Wrong Guy." Gene Mason & Fay Cole, in original comedy songs, after and living, with lots of laughs; (a Johnson, in a "Pandora in Vaudeville" with nifty songs and class; dance; Monrose and Grant, in a comedy impromptu offering, "Troubles of Their Own." There will also be the opening of a new serial drama, "The Dead Mystery," featuring Antonio Mo- no and Pauline Curley.

AN ENGLISH M'COR-
MACK COMING

Hollinshead, One of the Finest Lyric Tenors, Will Be Here December 2 at the Venetian Gardens.

The concert that are vividly remembered during the last twenty years are not many, but one that will, it is claimed, never fade from the recollection of those who attend will be the appearance here, in the Venetian Gardens on Thursday, December 2, of Redferne Hollinshead, a wonderful tenor, who it is claimed, resembles McCormack, the Irish lyric, more than any living singer.

Hollinshead will sing five songs the people know and understand and in a way, it is said, that will surprise and delight "I Hear You Calling Me," "Dear Old Dad of Mine," and many other old favorites will be included in the great Tenor's programme. Further details will be given daily this week.

SPANISH TENOR WILL THRILL ST. JOHN
Every Comment Points to a Wonderful Concert on Wednesday.

Saturday's announcement of the coming of Hninillo Lazaro, eminent tenor from old Barcelona, taking the place of Anna Case at Wednesday's recital in the city, was received with a thrill of surprise and pleasure that more than offset any disappointment experienced by the illnes of the soprano star, who was heard here last season. Senior Lazaro, while a stranger to this part of Canada, is familiar to all music lovers of discerning tastes, as his concert work and operatic career have been enjoyed by hundreds of St. John people visiting the large centres and by a wider field of enthusiasts as represented throughout the talking machine world. For the Columbia Company, Lazaro occupies that premier position held by Caruso for the Victor people, and his recorded works command high prices. Coming directly from New York at the solicitation of two leading musical bureaux and also as a favor to Anna Case herself, who deeply regrets her cancella- tion, senior Lazaro will furnish the people of this distant city with the surprise package of the year, something akin to the happy state of affairs when Louis Gravoire substituted for the sick Gorgozza, heard last season. Tickets are on sale at Imperial box office, and it is complimentary to the musical tastes of the city to state that very few have asked for a refund of their Anna Case ticket money and that the sale of new tickets continue brisk.

ANNA CASE AT THE UNIQUE

With commendable enterprise the Unique announces the positive appearance of Anna Case for three days commencing Thursday. It was indeed unfortunate that illness prevented the many admirers from hearing again her beautiful voice, on Wednesday, but this keen disappointment will be somewhat mitigated by the fact that the Unique Theatre has succeeded in securing the one and only picture that Miss Case has ever appeared in, and which portrays her wonderful ability as an actress even more marked to be claimed than her vocal attainments. This remarkable attraction "The Hidden Truth" will be shown three times daily beginning Thursday afternoon, and should interest thousands, those who intended hearing Anna Case and the very great many who could not afford that pleasing experience.

WATCH YOUR GUMS—BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE
Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the fore-runners of Pyloritis, the dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.
If the disease is unchecked, the gumline recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyloritis poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.
To avoid Pyloritis, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyloritis or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

DECEMBER ROD AND GUN.
To the hunter or fisherman looking for new places to hunt and fish, Rod and Gun in Canada for December will prove invaluable. In a splendidly illustrated article, W. L. Edmonds, graphically pictures the wild life of the dominion, including the North West Territories. Bonnycastle Dale takes his readers with him on a goose shooting trip after the big Canadian. In a reminiscent style Judge Fraecler describes the good old days in an interesting story of the Wayside Inn. The dog that is growing in favor every day is the Airedale terrier and in addition to a splendid cover painted by F. V. Williams, he has a story entitled, "Pluck" that will appeal to anyone. The various departments, Guns and Ammunition; Fishing; Conservation; Trap Line and Kennel are up to their usual high standard. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.
