the opening game of the National League season on Wednesday.

The team has had a long trip from the Pacific coast, but Manager Fred Mitchell reported all hands in good shape. Alexander probably will do the pitching in the opener, with Bill Killefer behind the bat.

Rutner and Wingo probably will be the battery for the champions.

Must Talk Nice.
Chicago, April 13.—Profanity on the baseball fields will not be tolerated in the American Association this season, President Hickey told his staff of umpires at a conference here today.

The umpires were instructed to order any player or manager off the field at the first offense and to report subsequent violations to the president, who said he intended to "perhaps suspend the offenders."

Victory for Griffiths.
Peoria, Ill., April 13.—Johnny Griffiths of Akron outpointed Jack Coyne of Orange, N. J., in a ten-round bout here last night.

WRESTLING.
Stecher is Victor.
Louisville, Ky., April 13.—Joe Stecher, world's heavyweight champion wrestler, successfully defended his title here last night by throwing Ivan Padounby, Estonian champion, in two straight falls. He won the first fall in fifty minutes with body scissors and bar arm hold, in the second in fourteen minutes with body scissors and double arm lock. In a preliminary match, Strangler Lewis scored two straight falls on Tommy Drausk of Holland.

Caddock Wins.

GOLF.
For British Matches.
New York, April 13.—Walter Hagen, national open champion golfer of the United States, will sail on the Carman-ian on May 10, to compete in the English open golf championship at Deal. He will be accompanied by A. F. Wallace, his business partner. Some time ago it was announced that Barnes, Hutchinson, Brady and others would sail with Hagen. All have abandoned the idea of making the trip with the exception of Hagen and Barnes. Just where Barnes will sail is not definitely known.

TENNIS.
Championship Play.
Pinehurst, N. C., April 13.—The semi-final rounds in men's singles were reached yesterday in the annual north and south lawn tennis championship tournament. The four men left in the singles and the result of their matches yesterday follow:

Wm. T. Tilden, defending champion, who defeated R. L. Bagg, at 6-0, 6-0; Harold A. Throckmorton, who defeated F. C. Bagg at 6-3, 6-3; Samuel Hardy, who eliminated G. Carlton Shaffer at 6-7, 6-8 and S. Howard Vossell, who vanquished R. B. Bidwell at 6-4, 6-2. The winners will meet in the final round today.

Crowe; vice-president, C. W. Montgomery; secretary-treasurer, S. D. McLeish; executive committee, the above officers and B. S. McParlane, A. J. Campbell, George M. Kent, Martin Dickie, Horace McDougall and H. B. McLaughlin; Dr. J. W. T. Hutton, chairman green's committee, George M. Kent; chairman house committee, H. W. Crowe. Thirteen new members were elected. It was decided to engage a professional golfer for the season as tutor.

LACROSSE.
For Amateur Games.
Ottawa, April 13.—"Amateurs only" is the slogan of the Ottawa Lacrosse club. At a meeting of the executive last evening when decks were cleared for action, it was unanimously decided that the club should support the move to have the National Lacrosse Union go back to lacrosse on an amateur basis. In fact, while no resolution to that effect was put through, it is understood that in the event of the N. L. U. deciding to continue professional lacrosse, the Ottawa club will withdraw.

President Booth and Secretary Butterworth were appointed delegates to the annual meeting of the National Lacrosse Union in Montreal on next Saturday.

Word has been received from the Shamrocks and the M. A. A. A. are strong for amateur lacrosse and that Cornwall is ready to fall in line. It now seems practically certain that the N. L. U. will banish the professionals.

ZULU KID SEES IT THROUGH WITH JIMMY WILDE

Stays Ten Rounds With Speedy Britisher

But at That It Was the Champion's Battle With His Opponent Doing Much Embracing—Bouts in Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., April 13.—Contrary to expectations, the Zulu Kid stayed the scheduled ten rounds with Jimmy Wilde, flyweight champion of the world, here last night. He would not have done so had Referee Billy Rooks exercised his authority as third man in the ring and prevented the Kid from endeavoring to spend two of each three minutes with the wriggling Britisher in his embrace.

In the second round, in an exchange, Wilde hooked a left to the Kid's chin and sent him down for the count of eight, Wilde retiring to his corner as the seconds were being told off.

After the sixth round, apparently the Kid's seconds whispered to him that he had a chance and sent him in to try mixing with the Britisher. In the initial exchange he caught Jimmy with a clean right swing to the chin which seemed to annoy the "Battling Atom," for he tore in when the Kid clinched. This clinch lasted fully thirty seconds and when Rooks finally got Jimmy free from the embrace of the American, the
