

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF
ST. JOHN
EXCITEMENT AND THRILLS
IN GREATEST SERIAL

World's Most Famous Detective
Shown in "The Carter Case," a
Craig Kennedy Serial

The tremendous interest of millions of people roused by reading Arthur B. Reeve's absorbing stories of Craig Kennedy, scientific detective, will reach its highest pitch with the appearance on the screen of this most popular unrivaled of mysteries in "The Carter Case," a serial which is to commence at the Imperial this Friday. This film serial visualizes the astounding application of modern science to the detection and combating of crime.

The fascination which held millions of readers of these stories in breathless suspense, will be increased a thousand-fold when the marvellously delicate and mystifying scientific instruments, described in Arthur B. Reeve's tales, are shown in actual operation on the screen. The spectator will see clearly what the reader could only vaguely guess at. The camera records the minutest details of the working of the thrilling, subtle devices which up-to-the-minute science puts at Kennedy's disposal.

Herbert Rawlinson, in the part of Kennedy, uses the rarest interest-captivating resources of the scientific laboratory to detect the secret foe of Aalia Carter, played by Miss Marguerite Marsh. Before the relentless test of science the most baffling mystery is solved, and the camera makes clear just how the test of science works. The wonders of science become familiar and simple to the spectator.

THE HARDWARE MARKET

(Hardware and Metal, May 10.)
Reductions have occurred in many fall lines such as stove pipe, stove pipe elbows, stove boards, coal hods, stove pipe thimbles and kindred lines. The present basis of quoting these lines provides for substantial declines and orders are now being solicited for fall delivery on the reduced basis. One coat enamelware RK has declined 10 per cent this week according to new discounts just issued. Linsed oil is again to the fore this week in an advance of five cents a gallon. The situation in regard to Argentine seeds shows no improvement and supplies here though no one is suffering on this account as far as can be learned. Shipments rolling will overcome this temporary shortage, however.

Refrigerators and renewal batteries have come in for revision downward this week, the new list prices showing a general decline approximating fifteen per cent. There has been no change made in the discounts. Dash chassis have registered an advance, whereas machine screws are again on the downward trend according to discounts just issued.

A revision upward has occurred in combination anvils and vises, some of pliers and janned lawn mowers. Dry mortar stirs is also higher, whereas declines are noted in lamp burners, malleable fittings and soldering copper. Business is reported very good and jobbers are well pleased with volume of orders being shipped out.

BASEBALL DAYS FOR THE BOYS

Oak Hall gives the favorite pastime of baseball and fishing a good boost for the boys by offering a good baseball bat, a ball, a mitt or a glove, or a fishing outfit complete of jointed rod, reel, line, hook and sinker with any purchase of $10 or upwards. This offers the parents an excellent chance to provide their boys with the means of amusing themselves at their favorite sport at no cost whatever, as these are given absolutely free with any purchase of $10 or upwards. The quantity of any one of these gifts is limited and as they will be given freely while they last, it is advisable to shop early. A delay of a few days may mean disappointment.

A FEW WANT OLD TIME
There was some little excitement in front of the Cornwall Cotton Mill, Wall street, early this morning when some of the operatives both male and female, refused to go to work on the day that they were scheduled to be closed. As the day was one of the disastrious ones thought better of it and took up their duties. One room was affected.

The management say they found it necessary to the satisfactory conduct of their business to adopt daylight time, and believed it would be satisfactory to their employees, especially now since the schools are adopting daylight time. They made special arrangements to settle last evening at East St. John and Poirer, who could not get a car on daylight time in the morning. They thought the whole matter was satisfactory to all concerned. Only a few of their employees are affected, and these are expected to return to work at once.

GLARING HEADLIGHTS MUST GO

Legislation to Control Car Power and Betterment Lights Essential
(Toronto Globe)

There is a serious need at the present moment for some action regarding the glaring headlights of automobiles. It is very necessary that the glaring headlights be forced from the city streets and the highways and in order to do this a suitable law must be decided upon by the government, and the candle power of the headlights restricted.

At the present moment the officials do not feel that they are familiar enough with facts to warrant them restricting the candle power of automobiles. They will not make a statement as to the proper lines to use.

There is an act on the statutes of Ontario which is supposed to cover the issue. However, the act has never been enforced, by reason of the fact that it is so broad that it does not have any material effect, even if complied with, in reducing the glare.

It took a number of years of agitation and not a few accidents before the Ontario legislature passed a law which prohibited glaring headlights; but the decrease in the number of accidents while driving at night in the United States now shows the necessity of such legislation being provided in this province.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
While rejoicing in the gradual cessation of the strenuous work carried on for over four years, the Red Cross is still asking for socks and urgently appeals to the different societies and individuals to continue to enforce the work during the summer until the balance of the wool on hand is used up. This demand will continue for our soldiers in the hospitals, sailors and army of the mercantile marine. Will you help us? Yarn can be had by applying to the Y. M. C. A., King street, to which place the knitters had been framed to be returned during the summer months.

MUST PROTECT BREAD SUPPLY.

Dr. Hastings Urges Enforcement Now of the Wrapping Rule.
(Toronto Globe)

Protection of Toronto's bread supply was the most important question discussed at the meeting of the Bread Supply Committee held yesterday afternoon. In his report to the board, Dr. Hastings reminded them that immediately prior to the war regulations had been framed to enforce the wrapping of bread, but that their enforcement had been precluded by the paper shortage which followed.

When the meeting of the committee was held for recommending that these regulations be now enforced, the M. O. H. drew attention to the dangers which attend the handling of unwrapped bread by drivers of bakers' wagons. Bread under the present conditions, he stated, was the filthiest food consumed by the public. It is on woods taken from this district that the experiments are being conducted. The wheat is broken down by distillation and the wood alcohol produced converted by a simple process into true grain alcohol.

Sawdust as Fuel
The development of sawdust through the newest scientific methods into true grain alcohol, which can be used as a fuel for automobiles, is now being carried out on the western coast.

An enormous supply of wood waste is available in the form of sawdust, which, when forests have been giving way to agriculture. It is on woods taken from this district that the experiments are being conducted. The wheat is broken down by distillation and the wood alcohol produced converted by a simple process into true grain alcohol.

The Menace of Bolshevism

(By Robert W. Jones, Managing Editor of Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.)

In declaring against Bolshevism the Loyal Order of Moose has taken its firm stand against the greatest evil that confronts America and the world today.

But in order to make our fight effective it is necessary that every member should get it clear in his mind just what Bolshevism means, what it means first to the country he loves, and second, to himself and his wife and children. We must know exactly whom and what we are fighting, and why.

There would be a whole lot less misunderstanding of the Bolsheviki if they were generally called, instead of that clumsy Russian name, just plain anarchists. For that is
