SWEAR THEY SAW
SEMONÉ NEAR
ST. MARTINS

Two Witnesses Heard in Case About G. G. Mur-doch's Automobile

SAY ACCUSED
'PHONED TO CITY

Then Some One Drove Out and an Axe Was Borrowed

Two witnesses swore at the preliminary hearing this morning in the Police Court into the charge against Harold Semone, of stealing G. G.
Murdoch's automobile, that they held conversations with the accused on the day following that on which the car was taken. This occurred at St. Martins, near where the car was found by G. Edgar Wilcox, who also gave evidence this morning. The hearing was set over again until Friday morning.

Sergeant Detective Power conducted the prosecution, while J. Starr Tait is appearing for the accused.

Tells of Talk.

Dallas Hopie, farmer at St. Martins, said he met the accused walking toward St. Martins on the afternoon of April 28—the day after the car was taken. The witness was driving a team toward Great Salmon river, but accused asked him if he would drive him back to St. Martins. Semone, he said, told him he was out on a fishing expedition. They turned back, picked up a load on the way, and then drove to the witness' farm. They had supper there, and then the accused, he said, wanted to telephone to Saint John. They went to the home of J. H.
Black, where accused used the phone.
He could not remember any details of the conversation except that Semone asked for someone to drive out to meet him. Later, a car arrived. The two men then held a conversation in the barn, the witness said, and then asked him for the loan of his axe. He gave it to them and they left. The next morning he found the axe had been returned. The following day, while searching around in the woods for hoes, he saw Wilcox, who told him about the car being found covered up by bushes. He said he noticed the bushes hiding the car had been freshly cut.

'Phone Message.

J. H. Black, farmer near St. Martins, gave details of the telephone conversation. He said Semone asked for "Mam 3478." He asked for Mr. Smith.
He then said, "Is that you, mother?" It was Tommy or Cecel there. Tell Cecel when he comes in to come up the road five miles above St. Martins, until he meets me, bringing W. K. and equipment. Cecel will know what I mean."

To Mr. Tait the witness said he was lying on the lounge nearby when this conversation took place. The wording might not be exactly as it was given, he admitted, but it was as near as he could remember.

To Sgt. Detective Power, the witness said no one had asked him to repeat this message.

Mr. Wilcox told of finding the car in the woods, covered with bushes. He saw a battery, he had taken the car out and driven it to St. Martins. Later he notified Mr. Murdoch.

All Out Blow
Promptly Now

THERE has been some comment on the prompt way in which the all-out blow has come in lately when the firemen have been called to slight blaze or in case of an unforeseen alarm. Commissioner Harding said that instructions had been given that in future this course was to be adopted, to let the citizens know as soon as possible that danger from a conflagration was over. Instructions had been given that some person was to pull the hook just as soon as danger was past instead of waiting until the men were getting ready to go back to the stations.

MAINE AND TOURISTS

The Board of Trade this morning received a communication from the Tourist Bureau of the State of Maine which said that so far as they could ascertain there had been between $50, 000,000 and $60,000,000 spent by tourists in that province last year. They also enclosed samples of the literature sent out by the bureau advertising the advantages of Maine from a tourist standpoint.

for the Federal Public Works Department, arrived at Saint John from Ottawa, where he had been in charge of the work in connection with the repairing of the old post office building for several weeks with work to be done in Newfoundland, but he had no announcements to make.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr.
Hiram Hornbeam, "I have just been reading about a city where they had a clean-up and paint-up week. It is said to have made a great difference in the appearance of the place."

"I don't mind saying," said Hiram,
"the folks 'ud feel better, too, after it was done. 'Nother like a good job well done to make a feller better pleased with himself—an' I guess it lets that goes for a town, too. I hear you're gonto spruce up here in Saint John."

"You really heard that?" asked the reporter. "Are you sure?"

"They was talkin' about it up to the market this mornin'," said Hiram.

"Ah!" said the reporter—"in the market? Do you believe all you hear in the market?"

"Well," said Hiram, "it depends on the price of eggs I might be cheatin' myself out of two or three cents a dozen—but about this here clean-up I don't see no reason for tam-perin' with the truth. I guess it's ready to be time—so you may as well get —yes, sir."

WILL MEET AGAIN
ABOUT MEMORIAL

Committee to be Called—Commissioner Frink Gives View on Situation.

R. T. Hayes, M. L. A., chairman of the War Memorial committee, said this morning that a meeting of the general committee would be called in the near future to determine what course would be pursued in connection with the erection of the monument, in view of the council not granting the site at the head of King street.

Commissioner Frink today said that under the resolution of the council there was nothing to prevent the committee from erecting the memorial on the site they asked for, in a position about 20 feet back of the fountain, toward the hand stand. If they did this, he said, it would only be a matter of a few years when they would have the monument next the street, as before long Charlotte street would have to be widened, and then the fountain would have to be moved to some other location.

CAPT. T. W. WYMAN
DIES IN 67TH YEAR

Prominent in Shipping Life, He Had Made Voyage Round World.

After a lingering illness Capt. T. W.
Wyman, formerly of Freeport, N. S., passed peacefully to rest today at his residence, 98 Sydney street, in his 67th year. Captain Wyman was a son of the late Capt. H. E. Wyman also of Freeport, N. S.
His life work was devoted to following the sea, and he was at all times fearless of the accompanying dangers and ever a brave and true navigator.
Not only did Capt. Wyman sail between the New England and Maritime ports, but in his early days he was completely around the world with his father in a full rigged ship. In later years he was owner and in command of the schooner Swan. Captain Wyman was well known in all the busy shipping centres, and deep regret will follow the news of his death.
Nine years ago Captain Wyman was saddened by the loss of his wife Hattie E., whose memory he always revered with tender affection. In his home life as well as in the sterner portions of his calling he was a loving and devoted father, and ever faithful to duties both at home and to the seaman under his command.
In religious circles he was connected with the Freeport Baptist church. He leaves to mourn two sons Jesse and Hubert, and four daughters Emily, Mrs. R. J. Smith, Blanche and Estella.

BOY IS RUN OVER

Frank Nodwell Struck at Golden Ball Corner—Rode Into
The Street.

Frank Nodwell, five years old, residing at 154 Prince Edward street, was the victim of an accident about noon today at the corner of Union and Spe-der streets when the wheel of a sloven passed over him. He was coasting in a little wagon, and was pushed from behind by a boy pushing from behind.
In some manner, he steered out on to the roadway and crashed into the wheel of a sloven, driven by E. Northrup, the wheel passing over him. He was taken to the General Public Hospital for treatment, and later taken home. His injuries are not considered serious.

NO CLEAN-UP DAY

Commissioner Frink Says Cut in Estimates Prevents Expenditure.

Commissioner Frink said this morning that clean-up day, so far as the public works department was concerned, would have to go by the board this year. He said that when the estimates for the year were before the council he had to cut off $10,000. He had said at the time that this meant the services would be curtailed and clean-up day was one of the things that would have to go.
