RECENT WEDDINGS

Bunker-Lee.
A ceremony of particular interest in that it was the wedding of the fifth sister to be married in the same church by the same minister, took place in St. George's church, West St. John, on Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. W. H. Sampson united in marriage Miss Helen Lee, daughter of Henry L. Lee, of 208 St. George street, W. E., to James T. Bunker, of Tracy (N. B.). Mr. and Mrs. Bunker will reside in West St. John.

Keating-Corran.
A wedding of much interest to friends in this city took place at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening, October 9, at the Wesley Methodist church, Winnipeg, when Rev. Dr. G. F. Salton, pastor of the church, united in marriage Deborah Marion, daughter of the late Mary and Thomas Corran, and Frederic Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Keating, of Fairville. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Keating left on a short trip to St. Paul and Minneapolis, and on their return will make their home at Oban Court, Winnipeg. Both the bride and groom have a large circle of friends in this city and Fairville, who will join in wishing them every happiness in their wedded life.

RECENT DEATHS

Frederick Drake.
Ronald Drake, Lot 48, P. E. Island, received a telegram on Saturday conveying the news that his son, Frederick, had drowned while crossing the ice at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. Last spring Fred returned from overseas, where he served four years in France. He left P. E. Island for the west on May 7, and took up land near Smokey Lake. Besides his father he leaves an only sister, Mrs. Bruce Diamond, Brackley; two brothers, Earl, in St. John; James, some where in the United States; a step-mother, three step-brothers and four step-sisters.

Mrs. Henry Fletcher.
The many friends of Mrs. Annie Fletcher, wife of Henry Fletcher, were greatly saddened to learn of her death which occurred on Friday, October 24, at her residence, 140 St. James street, after a lingering illness. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Harry Fletcher, of Eastmount, and three daughters, Mrs. William Anderson and Misses Ethel and Gladys at home. The funeral will take place Monday from her late residence at 2.30.

Joseph Gregory Breen.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Breen will sympathize with them in the loss of their infant son, Joseph Gregory, which occurred yesterday. The funeral will be held today from his parents' residence, 4 Chubb street, at 2 p.m., old time.

Hon. Peter McNutt.
Charlottetown, Oct. 24.—Hon. Peter McNutt, aged eighty-five, died here today. He was a native of Malpeque, where he had conducted a large general business for many years. He was a member of the provincial Liberal government for eleven years, retiring from political life in 1918.

The Long Distance Greeting

There are quite a few folks to whom we write only once a year—at Christmas, we often wish we could say just the right thing, but distance makes it difficult.

Send them a personal greeting card—to be really personal it must be well chosen—our selection is big enough for you to find the one that will say just what you would, if you could gather all your friends around on Christmas Day.

Write to us for specimens, we'll reply by return.
