LOCAL NEWS

The R. K. Y. C. quarterly meeting will be held next Tuesday evening in the city room.

The adjourned meeting of the board of public works will be held this evening to arrange the contract with the St. John Railway Co. for the removal of snow and repair of streets.

Bargains innumerable will be found tonight at Macaulay Bros. & Co.'s after supper sale. A few noteworthy items are slightly soiled linens, dainty lingerie waists, wash belts, corsets and many others too numerous to mention in all departments.

Among the guests at Long's Hotel is Dr. Thomas Lewis, V. S., of Everett, Mass., formerly of this city. About forty years ago he ran away from his home here and went by wood boat to St. John. Then he went to Ireland where he took a course as a veterinary surgeon at Dublin, finishing up at Edinburgh. He will visit here for a couple of weeks combining business here to make his home again, if there seems to be good enough prospects, as the climate at Everett does not agree with his wife—Gleason.

IN THE COURTS.

EQUITY COURT. In the Equity court this morning before Chief Justice Barker, an application was made for further distribution in the Lawson estate. Court considers. In the matter of the estate of the late Arthur Howes, J. Roy Campbell, by the defendant for the purpose of sale to the infant. An allowance of $70 per year more was ordered.

COUNTY COURT. In the County court chambers today before Judge Forbes a summons returnable today had been taken out by the defendant for the purpose of changing the venue from St. John to Victoria County in the case of T. P. Watson, administration of the estate of the late W. H. Watson vs. John Finnanee. Mr. J. King Kelly for the defendant, read affidavits on behalf of the defendant and contended that as the cause of action arose in Victoria County, although the plaintiff resided in Houston, Me., a change should be made. Mr. H. H. Pickett read affidavits on behalf of the plaintiff showing that the plaintiff resided in Houston, Me., and that the case could be tried more conveniently and cheaply in the St. John County Court than in Victoria. The judge decided that he would not change the venue but was willing to give the defendant an order for security for costs although the defendant was now precluded from asking for security on account of delay.

PROBATE COURT. Estate of Helen Agnes deBury, unmarried woman. Last will proved whereby testatrix gives to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Saint John $200; to the Monastery of The Good Shepherd, Waterloo street, Saint John, $100; the rest to the Rev. Father Holland, in trust for the Rev. Father Holland, in consequence of the estates of the deceased's father and mother being in the hands of the court. It is impossible to correctly estimate at present the value of this estate, and so the amount in the interim is placed at a nominal figure. Alexander P. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, executors. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, proctors.

Estate of Cecelia McNeill, widow. Application of Louis McDonald, the executor, to pass accounts and for order for distribution. Citation issued. Returnable 14th September next. J. Mahoney, proctor.

Estate of Mary B. Gilbert. The citation in this case not having been properly served, the date for the return thereof is changed to the 5th of October next.

Estate of Mary Strain, unmarried woman. Petition of Margaret M. Murphy, administratrix presented for passing accounts. Citation ordered. Returnable 14th September next. Homer D. Forbes, proctor.

Estate of James Johnston, housecarpenter. Last will proved whereby deceased gives his property to his wife, Mary, and appoints her executor. She having died without taking probate, administration cum testamento annexo is now granted to two of her surviving daughters. No real estate, personal estate consisting of leasehold $1,000. H. H. Pickett, proctor.

STOLEN CHILDREN FOUND IN ST. JOHN

Portland Assyrian Had Run Off With His Two Sons.

Mother Locates Them and is Endeavoring to Get Them Away From Her Husband Who is Said to be Worthless.

About five weeks ago George Piffes, a 57 year old Assyrian left his home in Portland, Me., and at the same time two small boys, Peter, aged 13 years, and Ferria, aged 6 years, also disappeared. The wife and mother, the 21 year old son and three other younger boys were left at home without the least knowledge where the missing ones had gone. A search of the surrounding country was made without results.

The unfortunate Assyrian woman was distracted at the loss of her two bright boys and she sought assistance from the Portland officials, but without much success, until early this week she became greatly excited when she received the following letter:

"Dear Mother, You will never see me again, I am in St. John N. B. on Main street."

In a very few minutes the mother, with her 21 year old son and letters from the chief of the Portland police, also one from the president of the Children's Protective Society, of New England. The letters said that the father was not capable of looking after the children, but the mother was, and the 21 year old son was a faithful hard working, and respected citizen of Portland. They asked assistance of the officials in obtaining the two children who were stolen from home.

The mother and her oldest son arrived in the city on the Eastern liner yesterday and were not long in locating the missing husband and the two boys in a Main street fruit store. The father was astounded on meeting his wife, while the two boys were overjoyed on meeting their mother and elder son, with the two long sought youngsters attempted to return to Portland by the Camden but the enraged father went on the boat, assaulted his wife and tore the boys away from her side. The family proceeded to the police court where the two little fellows clung to the skirts of their mother.

The woman told her pitiful tale, how her husband had repeatedly abused her, and she believed his reason was gone, how she was a good woman and her eldest son a good citizen of Portland. As she told the story she clung closely to a bright eye boy of six years and repeatedly kissed him. The little fellows were pleased to be with their mother and elder brother. The woman said they had been married 23 years, and for about 20 years her husband has been jealous of her, having paid his children as much as ten dollars to watch her for no reason whatever.

When Piffes was asked what he had to say to his conduct, he said his wife had kicked him out of the house, that he would never live with her or take care of her, that he wanted the two boys, and did not care if he was sent to jail or not, but would not again look after his wife. He was remanded. It is expected that he will be deported from the city, as an undesirable citizen, and his mother with her children will leave for Portland this evening.

TRANSFER OF SITE FOR NEW WHARF

Government Taking Over Site for Extension of Clark & Adams Wharf—Tenders Have Been Called for.

This morning the papers were completed for the transfer of the ground at West St. John on which the proposed government wharf is to be built. All that is now required to complete the transfer are the signatures for the government. The wharf is to be built at the end of the new Clark and Adams wharf and will form an angle with it, sloping towards the Sand Point wharves. It will be constructed of concrete.

In a recent interview with Hon. Wm. Pugsley Mayor Bullock understood from the Minister that tenders had already been asked for the construction of the timber work of the wharf. If the work on this wharf is rushed it is likely that the new wharf will be ready for use in the winter of 1909-1910.

HARBINGERS OF AUTUMN THE ADVANCE MODELS IN

LADIES' COSTUMES

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY OF NEXT WEEK, we will take particular pleasure in presenting to our lady friends the very first of Fall and Winter Styles in Tailored Costumes. The selection we will have on hand will quite comprehensively convey a correct impression of the modes that are to prevail when the cooler weather sets in. It will be noticed that:

- Skirts Will Nearly All Be Plain Cored. Three-quarter Semi-Fitting Coats Will Prevail. The Sleeves Will All Be Long Again. Napoleon Collars Are Very Smart and New. Deep Cuffs Will Be Strictly Vogueish. Venetians, "Broads," Wide-Wale Serges. Directoire Models in Coats. Modified Empire Styles, Too.

This rather brief idea of the Costumes we are about to show will of course be fully amplified by the personal inspection the ladies will give them. It is a matter beyond doubt all wearers of costumes will take a keen interest in taking a leisurely stroll in our Costume Section when the Opening Exhibit is on next week.
