ENRILE--MAN OF MYSTERY AND CASH IN MEXICO'S REIGN OF BLOOD

He Collects Coin with Brains—and Guns

(By William G. Shepherd.)
Chihuahua, Mex., June 4.—Gonzalo C. Enrile, the man of mystery in the Mexican revolution, is in a hospital now with four knife wounds and a bullet hole in his chest.

He was sitting in the Plaza alone, for he is a solitary man, when was seized the revolution and walked off with it. There is every indication that the pesos who started out to fight with Orozco for their rights, as Mexicans are now fighting unwittingly, to aid the very men who opposed them during the Diaz regime.

Enrile was a Mexican diplomat under Diaz. While the revolution was developing, he took no part. But once it was under way, he suddenly appeared.

Intervention seems always to have been his aim. The grip power behind him—a mixture of Wall Street and Mexican big business—seems urging him on to acts which might provoke the U. S. to wrath.

Enrile took all power. The junta sent Emilio Vasquez Gomez to Juarez to be provisional president. Enrile said "no."

Enrile fled by night back to the United States. All this indicates that the present revolution isn't on the common people of Mexico.

Enrile told them, "and these bonds are to be distributed as follows among you." He read the list. "There are more bad elements behind the revolution than behind Madero."

Stylish, Pretty, Effective

What the fan is to the little brown women of the chrysanthemum land, the parasol may be to the up-to-date woman of the west.

This illustration shows the way to carry the new cordellere parasol which may be looped over the shoulder, leaving the hands free.

It is not only a pretty piece of apparel in itself, but it sets off the simplest dress.

The cordellere is made in striking colors. For the girl who wishes to wear a simple white frock, for dress as well as everyday occasions, the black and white model shown here is capital. It is stylish. It can be carried with almost any dress and hat.

To make her dress and her parasol match, the resourceful girl will put a touch of narrow black satin ribbon into her white dress, and perhaps use a black taffeta hem. Tiny black taffeta buttons might be used in place of the narrow ribbon for the dress trimming.

With this black and white color scheme which is so effective, it is easy to get a touch of color in the hat. This picture model is in deep blue heny and has a slashed and raised brim.

Little Mary, aged, was weeping "There's no use in anything," she replied quick like that.

It's all right to sing while you work but for goodness sake change your tune.

There's one thing about youth, we get over it.

Next we'd like to hear what Charley Taft thinks of Teddy.

Committee of French Language Congress Decides Secretary's Position is Not Justified—All to be Admitted.

Quebec, June 6.—The incident raised by the publication of a letter of the secretary of the French Language Congress which stated that the French Canadian interdicts of Maine would not be admitted to the congress without having an apology to Bishop Walsh of Portland, was brought to a close today by the committee of the congress. It has issued a statement in which it says that after having heard the explanations given by the secretary, the committee regrets the publication of his letter and stands by its regulations, which declare that every French Canadian or Acadian shall be admitted to the congress.

BELIEVE CHURCH UNION ASSURED

The plan for the work of the afternoon as arranged by the business committee did not contemplate the consideration of the home mission business. Rev. Dr. Grant, however, suggested that in view of the fact that the evening was to be given up to the public meeting in the interests of home missions the adoption of the home mission report should be proceeded with at once.

Edward Brown, of Winnipeg, who is deeply interested in the introduction of modern business methods into the work of the denomination, moved that this should be done.

Dr. Somerville declared that the motion was out of order and that the matter must first be taken up by the business committee.

Mr. Brown moved that all the rules be suspended and that Home Missions be discussed.

Dr. McQueen, the moderator, declared that in his work in the work he had followed the policy of going straight at things without much regard to the blue book, and he ruled that a motion suspending the rules was in order. The assembly suspended the rules and went at the Home Mission business.

The amount of business done was, however, small. Reports were presented by Rev. Dr. Scott, of Montreal, and Rev. D. Praso, of Toronto, with reference to the publications of the church. Dr. Scott stated that a monthly publication was the most successful of its kind in the religious world, covering its field completely.

Dr. Praso showed that starting with twelve thirteen years ago, the publication department now had eleven separate issues and a working capital of $20,000. These enterprises have always had the complete support and the good will of the denomination.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY IN SURGERY

Buffalo, June 6.—Flesh and bone from the dead can be used to patch the sick bodies of the living.

This is the assertion of Dr. Rowell Park, a noted professor of surgery in the University of Buffalo. His scheme for a habituating the quick at the expense of the dead is set forth in an article entitled "Thanatology" in the current Journal of the American Medical Association. He says that one sound body, such as that of a person in health killed by accident, will furnish enough available tissues for making perhaps a graft—each one of which might mean health and happiness to someone.

"Let a healthy young woman meet accidental and instantaneous death," says Dr. Park. "It would be possible to use no inconsiderable portion of her body for grafting or other suitable surgical procedures."

"The arteries and nerves could be used in the fresh state, and the former even after preservation, for suitable transplantation or repair work on the vascular and nervous systems of a considerable number of other people. So also could the thyroid, the cornea, and especially the bones."

"All the teeth, if healthy, could be transplanted. With the thin bones, ribs especially, plastic operations—particularly on noses—could be performed on 50 people."

"The exterior of the body could be made to supply and amount of normal skin for grafts. The kidneys could also be easy utilized."

ESTABLISHMENT OF CANADIAN LLOYDS BEING CONSIDERED

Means May Be Taken to Cope With Unfavorable Insurance Rates—Thorough Investigation Ordered.

Ottawa, June 6.—The proposal to establish a Canadian Lloyds has been taken up by the trade and commerce department as one of the subjects for investigation in connection with an attempt to recover Canadian trade now being diverted from Canadian ports.

Discriminating insurance rates are one of the factors in taking Canadian exports to United States ports. The trade and commerce department is conducting an investigation covering this phase of the problem and including a study of the needs of the principal Canadian ports on the St. Lawrence and in the Maritime Provinces. The investigation as ordered by Hon. George Foster will be thorough and will likely be made the basis of a strong policy of development of Canadian trade channels.

The body was weighed down by a ten pound stone tied round the shoulders.

ANNIVERSARY OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

On Sunday, June 2nd, the members of Trinity S. S. met to celebrate their 20th anniversary. There were 144 members present. There were four sessions, the first held Saturday evening under the auspices of the Lodge division, S. O. F. After opening the visitors were admitted and stirring addresses made by Rev. Mr. Whiteley, rector of Trinity and Mr. Farham, of St. Stephen's School Association.

The second session was held at the corner Baptist church, in the absence of the superintendent, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson, conducted the exercises of the school. Johnson gave a most delightful instructive lesson to the Bible class and Mrs. D. H. Mawhinney led the organ in appropriate music. Jones, returned that Indian missionary, gave an address on missions which was highly appreciated and an offering was taken at the close for mission purposes.

At 2:30 the real anniversary programme was carried out in Trinity church and a large number of interested people were present. Singing was led by an orchestra of 4 violins and organ accompaniment. All Sunday school talent. The violins were Messrs. Clifford, Ha and Herman Mawhinney, Wilson Jarvis Snider, and W. H. McGowan. Organist, Miss Bessie Mawhinney.

Reports were read by the superintendent and secretary and the head of the different departments, viz. Cr roll, temperance, missions, I. B. R. and home department. The organ classes reported verbally.

Two addresses were given which will long be remembered by the members. The first, by the Rev. Mr. A. president, on the subject, "Church and Temperance," prefaced many hearty congratulations of kind words to the superintendent, officers and scholars of the school and followed by a solo, "Where is Wandering Boy?"

The second address was by Mr. Jones, who delighted the child with her oriental costume and description of Indian religion and manners.

This was followed with a touching recitation by Miss Olive Mawhinney, entitled, "Is it Nothing to You?" Before closing Miss Jones and Farham were called to the platform and presented, the former with bouquet of beautiful blue violets, latter with an address, in which expressed recognition and appreciation of his services as president of our county association.

An offering amounting to $400 was taken which will be sent to native orphanage in India that children of this school help to support.
