

Happenings of the Week

German street, returned to her home at St. Andrews, on Friday.

One of the prettiest teas of the Christmas season was given last week by Miss Marion Campbell at her home on Leinster street. The hall and room presented a very handsome scene with the Christmas greenings, holly, and flowers. Miss Campbell received her guests in a lovely pale blue gown and was assisted by her sister, Miss C. W. Sweet in a very smart gown of heliotrope net over heliotrope satin. The spacious dining room had for its color scheme yellow, and with the very pretty gowns worn by the ladies one felt that the spring had come. The well appointed tea table and for its centre a large cut glass bowl filled with yellow narcissus. Assisting with the dainty refreshments were Miss Marion Moore, Miss Gertrude Fleming, Miss Edythe White, Miss Mary White, Miss Hazel Campbell and Miss Constance Campbell. Amongst the guests were Miss Jean Foss, Miss Dorothy LeRoy, Miss Nellie Melrose, Miss Miriam Kins, Miss Constance Ewing, Miss Gladys Dowling, Miss Margaret Patterson, Miss Blanche Bestway, Miss Hazel Sharp, Miss Muriel Belyea, Miss Margaret Pendrigh, Miss Kathleen Logan, the Misses Evans, Miss Dorothy Lowe, Miss Leslie Grant, Miss Helen Robinson, Miss Janie Creighton, Miss Muriel Russell, Miss Dorothy Waterbury, Miss Helen Murdoch, Miss Helen Shaw, Miss Nora Duddy, Miss Ripley, Boston; Miss Doris Barbour, and Miss Helen Brown.
