HAMPTON

Hampton, April 28.—During the month of April, weekly meetings have been held to discuss the advisability of organizing a chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, with the result that on Saturday afternoon two St. John ladies came to assist in the formal organization.

These were Mrs. Hugh Mackay, representative of the Loyalist Chapter and Mrs. Gordon Sanction, Standard Bearer of the same. The patriotic work in which these two ladies have been engaged is varied and the lessons learned from their experiences will no doubt be of much benefit to the new chapter, which chose as its name Hampton Court, with "Not for self, but for Country," as its motto. The officers are as follows: Emilie M. Alward, regent; Bessie G. Howard, 1st vice regent; Helen M. Desmond, 2nd vice regent; Gladys M. Smith, secretary; Jean Schofield, treasurer; Alberta Crandall, standard bearer.

The chapter has already been presented with a silk standard in a magnificent standard, the gift of Sir E. McLeod, Chief Justice of New Brunswick.

On Friday afternoon at a special meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society, P. W. F. Brewster, on behalf of the members, presented to Miss Elizabeth Dube, a fountain pen as a token of remembrance from the society. Miss Duke left on Monday for Moncton, Sackville, to continue her profession of nursing. She will be much missed among church circles as she has always been an active worker in all good causes.

Mrs. T. Wm. Barnes, Mrs. J. E. Angerville and Mrs. Dr. S. S. King attended the lecture delivered by Baroness Hard at the Red Cross tea on Tuesday afternoon where Mrs. E. A. Schofield, and Mrs. George Cooper, friends.

Lieut. Guy Flewelling of the Foresters Battalion, Sussex, was a visitor in Hampton on Friday.

Miss Steeves of St. John, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McManus.

Mrs. Fokine and children, are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Taylor, Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd and Miss Rhona Lloyd were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carvel.

Mrs. Jack Ryan and young daughter Mart, were passengers on the steamer Olympic, which landed at Halifax, on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Ryan, who has been residing in England since December, 1915, arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myles McCready, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. W. Green of Norton, is the guest of her brother, Mr. Myles McCready.

Mrs. H. H. Fowler and Mrs. Cecil March were visitors in St. John, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Grimmer and children Perry Point, were visitors in Hampton, last week, en route from St. John, where they have been guests of friends.

Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot was in the city on Monday and delivered address to St. George's Society.

Arrival of the early morning train from Halifax, the residents of Hampton, were aroused by much cheering and tootings of automobile horns. To cause of the disturbance being several energetic citizens who had turned out this early to welcome home a returned soldier, Pte. Walter Pierce. Pte. Pierce was conducted to his home in Mr. E. A. Schofield's car, which was gallantly decorated for the occasion.

On Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the I. O. G. T., the election of officers resulted as follows: Vice Temporal, George DeLong; Vice Temporal, Allan McEwan; Secretary, Ethel Free; Financial Secretary, Ethel King; Treasurer, Madeline Flewelling; Chaplain, Clarence McCready; Marshal, Cyrus Bull.

Rev. Mr. Dittie of Toronto, spoke on Monday evening in the Methodist church hall, to an appreciative audience. The address was in the interest of the Pocket Testament League.

At the close of the meeting local secretaries were appointed to represent the different denominations.

Hampton has been called upon to mourn the loss of another brave man, who gave his life in the great cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belding received official notice from Ottawa, that their son Harry, had been killed in action on April 9th. Pte. Belding enlisted with the 14th, but was later transferred to an infantry unit. Two brothers Archie and John are still on active service at the front and another Oscar at home. Three sisters also survive. Mrs. A. Campbell and Miss Lila in St. John, and Miss Marguerite at home.

Before leaving, Pte. Belding was a student at the Hampton Consolidated school, and on Tuesday the flag on the building was hung half-mast in his memory.

Hampton has also had the pleasure of welcoming home two returned soldiers, Pte. Walter Pierce and J. J. Keogh, of Central Norton. Both of the above have for several months been receiving treatment in English hospitals. The former suffering from shell-shock, and the latter from the result of wounds.

Capt. S. S. King, M.D., has at last achieved his great ambition of serving on every front on which the British troops are engaged. Capt. King left Hampton in May, 1915, and joined the R.A.M.C., in England. From there he was sent to the Dardanelles, afterwards being stationed in Egypt, Mesopotamia, and India. In May, 1916, while serving in the East, he became ill and was sent to India for medical treatment. He was granted a furlough and returned to Hampton last August, and later went to Montreal for treatment in the Royal Victoria Hospital. Last December, he again left for England and was for a time a member of the hospital staff at Harwick. At present, Capt. King is with the Imperial forces in France.

For Red Cross Fund. The total receipts for flags, etc., by members of the Young Women's Patriotic Association on Monday, St. George's Day, amounted to $1,930.13. The expenses will likely be about $200.
