Your Christmas gift may cost you less than a dollar, or it may cost a hundred—according to your means—but the thought which prompts you to send it is what counts.

We all have a duty to each other. It may be that we cannot do as we want, but at least we must do what we can.

Plan a little gift for each of the "folks at home," and if there's a boy a long way off, get his first and send it at once.

Birks Year Book illustrates several thousand gifts, suitable for everybody.

As to our prices—just tell us, rough, what you want to spend.

Write for your copy to-day.

Hon. W. H. Thorne was elected to the place on the Council vacated by Mr. James Harrison.

A resolution on the matter of increased telegraph tolls was formulated to be presented to the Railway Commission, which sits here today.

Correspondence was read from the DeVere Aviation Company, with respect to the selection of an aerodrome site at St. John. Messrs. W. S. Allison, A. H. Wetmore and C. H. Peters were named a committee to co-operate with the City Council in forwarding the matter.

The same gentlemen were named as a committee to enquire into the drainage of the Marsh to the east of the city and to assist such bodies as are now working for an improvement in drainage conditions.

A report was presented by the Coastal Committee on the matter of wharfage rates St. John and Digby. The new Coastal Committee was instructed to follow up the matter.

The action of the President in entering a protest against shipments of Roumanian exports financed by Canada through a foreign port when there were storage accommodation and shipping facilities for such exports at Canadian Atlantic ports was ratified, and the secretary was instructed to follow the matter up.

A resolution was adopted expressing satisfaction at the action of the directors of the Canadian National Railway in recognizing the status of St. John as one of the terminal points of the railway and as a national port that is worthy of development and urging upon the company the desirability of taking early steps toward enlarging their steamship service through the port and of extending and improving their terminals at this port.

The secretary was authorized to communicate with the Quebec Board of Trade with respect to the port demands which the Quebec Board has made upon the Canadian National Railway.

Irvine Black, of Canaan, who was admitted to the Hospital for gunshot wound in the thigh, is said to be resting quite comfortably.

"I Am Glad to See You Pass Back, My Boy"

"WELL, I'm hungry."
"Good. It is a long time since I knew you to be hungry, unless it was for candy or some fancy dishes."
"Guess you are right, Dad."
"And what makes you so hungry?"
"I don't know, unless it is the Dr. Chase's Nerve Food mother is giving me."
"Something is making you look better, anyway; you have more color and seem to have more snap about you. Have you been weighed lately?"
"Yes, I have gained six pounds since I began taking the Nerve Food. Mother weighs me every week."
"That is fine. Now I hope you will be able to do better at school. I would like to see you at the head of your class or near it. I guess you did not have a fair chance before. You were half starved and we did not know it."
"That was no fault of yours, Dad."
"Perhaps not, in a way, for there was always plenty to eat, but the trouble was we did not see that you got what was good for you, and you got away under weight."
"One thing certain, I am feeling a lot better now, so I guess it must be from using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

"Yes, we shall give the Nerve Food credit for doing a whole lot, for I am sure you would never have gained up so quickly without it."
"Who told you about it, Dad?"
"I read in the paper that one boy in every three was under weight from malnutrition, and that was why so many boys were nervous, irritable and backward at school. Then I began to think about you and decided that you were not having a fair chance."
"You will not need to worry about me any more."
"No, I hope not, and I am going to warn other people of the risk they are running of having their children becoming physical and nervous wrecks for lack of proper nourishment. You had better go out and get some fresh air now before dark."
In order to be sure of getting the genuine Dr. Chase's Nerve Food it is only necessary to see the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy. 50c a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
