Those Nasty
Little Pimples
That Come On The Face
Are Caused By Bad Blood.

Many an otherwise beautiful and attractive face is sadly marred by the unsightly pimples and various other skin troubles, caused wholly by bad blood.

Many a cheek and brow cast in the mould of beauty have been sadly defaced, their attractiveness lost, and the possessor of the "pimple face" rendered unhappy for years.

Their presence is a source of embarrassment to those afflicted as well as pain and regret to their friends.

There is an effective remedy for these facial defects and that is Burdock Blood Bitters, the old reliable medicine that has been on the market for over 40 years.

It drives out all the impurities from the blood, and leaves the complexion clear and healthy.

Mrs. James Williams, Watford, Ont., writes:—"My face was covered with pimples for nearly a year, I used different kinds of remedies to get rid of them and finally thought there was no relief. A friend dropped in one day and told me I should try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did so and in three bottles, and found the pimples were all disappearing from my face, and now I have a clear complexion again."

Suit Case And Two
Men In CustodyCharles, John and George McLeod Arrested With 21
Bottles of Alleged Liquor.

Henry's own dear "Lizzie," who run around as the police patrol took King street on high last night and headed with enthusiasm for the police station. When she reached there the reason for her exhilaration was soon apparent. Out of the spacious compartment in the rear which the city has provided for the convenience of those who would be somewhat reluctant to visit the lockup on foot, there appeared two of the stalwarts of the west side force. Reaching into the cavernous depths from which they had emerged, they pulled and struggled, and finally brought to light a big black suit case, strapped and buckled, and gleaming wickedly in the door. The two cops lunged at the case and turned back to Maria, out of whose swinging door came two men wearing sheepskin coats, and the entire party disappeared into the station. The suit case was taken to the guard room, and its former custodians were invited to take a room and spend the night, they accepted.

Twenty-one Bottles

Arrived in the guard room the contents of the case were brought to light and soon there were "twenty-one green bottles standing in a row." To be quite technical there were twenty bottles, plus another partly full.

The liquid contents of the partly filled receptacle emitted fumes that signified "Danger, Beware!" or "For External Use Only," but unfortunately it is not every one who might interpret the message, or read it aright.

A bystander warranted the seizure to be a collection of genuine alcohol splits, the very worst of barbed-wire hooch.

Policemen William Garnet and John Linton are responsible for the seizure of wet goods, they arrested Charles John and George McLeod on Union street, west end, last evening, as the two of them were walking down the street struggling with the heavily loaded suit case between them. They will be charged this morning with having liquor in their possession unlawfully.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:

By HELEN ROWLAND

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife.

My daughter, sweet, are the uses of perversity; for, verily, verily, Opposition is the life of the love-game!

Lo, whose greatest heaven among women, like unto a professed Woman-Hater?

Whose piquet the vanity of the Cakes and arouseth the spirit of the chase among the Highbrows and the Fluffy-heads, like unto him that saith "Go away from me!"

Even as a "No trespassing" sign doth he prove their curiosity and awaken their sporting blood.

For, that thing which a woman is DENIED, that will she HAVE, though pursuit it unto the uttermost ends of the earth, and the farthest corners of the drawing-room.

What, therefore, do all his dodgings and his strummings avail a Woman-Hater? For, while one dunsel hush him with smiles and wampings, another stills his alarms with promises of platonic friendship.

And, in his madness to escape the one, he plungeth into the arms of the other.

And she GETTETH him!

Likewise, whose kindly the spirit of conquest in men, and inspireth their desire, like unto her that hath forewarned love and marriage?

Lo, she sigheth, "My heart is in the grave!"

And, therefore, doth each man rush forth in search of a trowel and spade, that he may be the first to daintier her affections. Yes, with kisses, they seek to dry her tears, and with burnt offerings and proposals of marriage to save her wounds.

She saith, "I am wedded unto mine art; and no other marriage is for me! For why shall I commit bigamy?"

And lo, each man yearneth to procure her a divorce, without delay, and their persuasions are mighty and without end.

She declareth, "I am an emancipated woman! And never shall I consent to be ANY man's Rib, his echo, and his shadow!"

And, behold, every man becometh, straightway, a "reformer," and striveth valiantly to "convert" from a desk unto a kitchenette and from a typewriter unto a sewing-machine.

And, the greatest of these is OBSTINACY.

Verily, the small boy climbeth always for the fruit at the top of the tree; a man yearneth always to break the horse at the back of the prance; and a woman dreameth always of the unutterable.

Likewise, an easy conquest lacketh spirit—but a little difficulty is the spice of love!

Moncton Clergyman
Heard At CentenaryRev. W. H. Barracough of Central Methodist Conducted
Two Services Here.

The Rev. W. H. Barracough, of the Central Methodist church, Moncton, conducted both the morning and evening services in Centenary church yesterday, a church in which he was formerly pastor and served for four years.

At the morning service Mr. Barracough delivered a most eloquent and earnest sermon, taking as his text, "I Have Prayed for Those That Thy Faith Fail Not," Luke 22:32.

The words of the speaker were addressed by Christ to Peter, Peter the Great Witness of the Great Truth, Peter the chosen disciple, whose faith was essential to the success of Christianity.

Had Peter missed the meaning of the cross, had Christ been to him but a Jewish Messiah, then the early church would have failed. But Peter's faith would have failed. But Peter's faith was founded on the rock it stood and so the church of God stands today, despite the fire of persecution and the influence of corrupt, selfish and designing men.

Much Expected of Church

Even today, as in the day of Peter, much is expected of that church. It must be the great educator of public sentiment. It still must war against vice and injustice. It must support the proper enforcement of the law and replace with wholesome, healthful recreation the present day craving for sensual excitement. It must continue to reclaim the prodigal and redeem the faithful. It must be from religion that the leaders of the country must come, for religion alone can give the head to the country needs.

Even as Peter did not fail, neither will his church. Peter was the key-man assaulted by Satan, and so today the individual must consider that he, too, is a keyman, that the church may fall if he fail, and comforted by Christ's promise that He would pray for him, the individual should resolve that He will not fail as the keyman of God.

In the evening Mr. Barracough spoke interestingly of his ten years' work in the Indian and Oriental mission field in British Columbia and the optimism with which he had been inspired by a visit to the same fields recently.

RIVER CLEAR

Choked With Floating Ice
—Steamers Getting Ready.

The St. John river from Indiantown to Fredericton is now clear of solid ice, but plenty of drifting ice is reported. Saturday afternoon Grand Bay and Ham's Cove was full of floating ice cakes and tugs could hardly make a passage through the mass.

Indian town harbor was also full of large cakes although the ferry steamer E. Ross was able to make her regular trips to Pleasant Point.

Work is being rushed on the river steamers getting them ready for the summer's work.

The steamer Majestic will leave Indian town a week from tomorrow on her first trip, and after making a few trips to Fredericton will go on the Washademoak route.
