POOR DOCUMENT

COMPARE MANALE A MARCH. JAN MALVARE A CHARLEN AND MALVARE

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 28, 1902.

to cling to the cance till some men rescued him. John Lynch, Carleton county lumber operator, and Miss Sarah Rowan, daugh-ter of the, late John Rowan, were married at St. Dunstan's church this morning by Rev. Father Carney. The bride, who was attended by Miss Lignic Lynch, nice of the grout wore a blue and white deviation is lik and white chiffon hat and carried a body to the the bride's mother, Miss John Rowan, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple followed a lengthy programme of recitar through the New England States. The marriage was celebrated today at the Second Sheffield Baptist church, of Idella, daughter of Squire F. W. Bailey. The Misses Churcingham were visiting the Second Sheffield Baptist church, of Idella, daughter of Squire F. W. Bailey. The Misses Churcingham were visiting the Second Sheffield Baptist church, of <section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDEN

Grand Talls will not celebrate Corona-tion day, and with the exception of spec-ial services in the Episcopal church, the day, will pass unheralded here. Lack of public spirif and harmony is the cause of the iddifference of the people. The town schools close today for the summer holidays. The examination of the Dector and Mrs. Macfarland, of Fairville, were visiting at White Head yesterday. James Morgan and family, also Miss Robinson moved to their summer resi-dence on the island yesterday.

Lime Juice from other lime juice. So-vereign is the pure fruit juice of the West Ind a Lime A delicious drink within the reach of every parse. you want the best, ask, hat "Sovereign" and see it bears this trade ma SIMSON BROS. COLTD.,

HALIFAX, N.S.

was followed by Judge E. McLeod, of St. John, and Doctor Weldon, of Dalhousie College, Halifax, who made a strong speech on the vastness of the British em pire, and the proposition that Canada should contribute towards her own defence.

The weather was fine until 3.30, when a light shower come up, which caused some of the country people to scatter for home.

SALISBURY. Salisbury, June 26-Mrs. R. Baird is spending the week in St. John with friends Elmer Chapman left yesterday afternoo

Geo. M. Russell, F. S.; Fred. G. Moore, treas.; John M. Tingley, chaplain; Roy Tingley, con.; Cecil McGorman, A. C.; Dora Reynolds, I. S.; Fred. J. Newcomb, deed, as observation and reading The ideal marriage, the one most nearly sure to result in full, satisfying and com elete happiness, is the one in which a chatchen-the meaning of the word is

O. S.; C. Allison Bishop, P. W. P. Mrs. Davidson, of Truro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Russell. Mrs. Amelia Colpitts went yesterday on visit to Moneton.

H. H. Stuart, principal of the superior ol, has gone to Fredericton to spend he holidays.

Miss Orpha West loft yesterday to at-tend the teachers' institute at Fredericton. Mariner Smith, of Moneton, visited relahere this week.

WHITE'S COVE.

White's Cove, Queens Co., June 25-The weather the past few days has been so wet that the farmers can hardly gct their buckwheat sowed, but the crops in general are looking well. L. E. Wright and wife returned home yesterday after spending three weeks at Hugh and Wendell Farris are spending

J. Wallace DeB. Farris arrived today from Philadelphia on a visit to his old

MILLIDGEVILLE.

Millidgeville, June 26-Doctor Ervine, o Boiestown, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwine.

The new sidewalk, half of which was laid last fall, is being continued through out the entire road.

TRURO. Truro, N. S., June 24-(Special)-At Elmhurst, the residence of Hon. Thomas McKay, senator, this morning, one of the Triends.

Elmer Chapman left vesterday aftertoon for IR.E. Island, to visit his brother, Eev.
Engene Chapman. He was accompaniet by his little nephew, Georgie. Mrs. Chap-man, who has been there some weeks, will return with him.
A. C. M. Lawson left Tuesday for Fred-ericity to attend the teachers' institute.
Mrs. Lawson and family are visiting friends in Sussex. Mr. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Mose Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson and family have re-moved to Memramcook.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson and family have re-moved to Memramcook.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson and family have re-moved to Memramcook.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Miss Annie Harper left today for an extended visit to P. E. Island.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the room with her father, looking un-usually beautiful in a dainty gown of Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of Chipman, Queens county.
Herting A. C. M. Lawson has ac-cepted the superior school of the particular to the transmediate friends were present. The partors were beautifully in a dainty gown of faithful messenger"-or someone exercising that function, discovers the exact suit ing that function, discovers the exact suit-ability of the man and woman for each other and brings them together. The schatchen is the Jewish profes-sional matchmaker. There ought to be such a calling among people of all races and creeds, for its exercise is conducive in the highest degree to the success of the marital union and to all the comfort and prosperity that follow from it.

mosperity that follow from it.

phosperity that follow from it. The youth and maid brought together by the professional matchmaker of skill are insured against marital disappoint-ment. The schatchen has studied and judged fairly their tempers, temperament, character and habits; and because the success of his callier decourts are the success. success of his calling depends on his skill as measured by the success of the union he is very careful not to make a mistake,

24, operation on his magesty the king suc-cessfully performed and this morning physicians state that considering all the circumstances, he is progressing favorably. Coronation festivities in London have been home. Merrit Straight and wife were passen-gers on steamer Star yesterday to Me-Donald's Corner, where they will spend a few days before returning to Caribou, (Me.), to reside. hood, and there ought to be a sum had by against illness or misfortune. Given these conditions, the husband and wife are joined together without any illu-sions as to each other; there is no chance of disappointment; no heart-burning and York News.

Vild Cherry. gers. "It clears

Shot at German Emperor's Train.

Paris, June 23.-According to the Rap-pel, a shot was fired as the train convey-ing the German emperor to Dusseldorf. courts of change. Provincial gove

FOR HOLIDAY STANDS,

QUEBEC'S PROCLAMATION

and the postponement of the coronation ceremonies. The colonial secretary said he would advise his excellency, what ac tion was to be taken in regard to the festivities. In connection with this "the ollowing cable was received here today: London, June 25-To the governor-general, and his experience enables him to avoid Ottawa: Referring to my telegram June 24, operation on his majesty the king sucabandoned, except dinner to poor and

You charitable entertainments. other should adopt similar course. (Sgd.) Chamerlain.

From this it will be seen that the gov of disappointment; no heart-burning and mutual hatred in the days to come. In fact, there is every reason to believe from the records of experience that the longer their association in wedlock the more will their mutual liking grow, and that it will eventually bloom into a last-ing love, as ardent as that of unwedded sweetness, which so often melts away in marriage. Day by day is experience making plainer to those who think seriously and deeply on the subject that the first essential of a happy marriage is to have the match-made by an outsider. It should be the hope of every lover of mankind to see from the Quebec government of the mat-ter, although it is understood that the attorney-general has issued a notice that the time for cancelling the proclamation the time for cancelling the proclamation was too short. The adjutant-general in London (Eng-land) cables the adjutant-general of the imperial forces at Halifax as follows: "All military ceremonies in connection with the coronation have been abandoned." Quebec, June 25--(Special)-The local government cannot cancel the coronation day proclamation as it would interfere materially with administration of justice throughout the province. Tomorrow hav-ing been declared a non-judicial day, it is now too late to notify the officers of is now too late to notify the officers of make an

The marriage was celebrated today at the Second Sheffield Baptist church, of Idella, daughter of Squire F. W. Bailey, of Little River, and Thomas Briggs, son of George Briggs, of Lakeville Corner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rogers, assisted by Rev. Harry Harrison. The Indians of the St. John river were to have a parade here for the coronation. Now they intend to parade on Saturday afternoon next, and will march through the aprincipal streets of the city. The newly elected chief, Anthony Sacobie, will head the parade. n town this week.

SUMMERVILLE.

Summerville, N. B., June 24-The grass in this section is growing fairly well; the frequent showers do much to promote its

An ice cream social and concert will be held in the hall here on Friday evening, under the auspices of the young ladies of the parish. The proceeds will be expended towards church matters.

Miss Katie Brosnan, who for the past few days has been visiting at Thomas Martin's, as returned to her home in the Daniel Porter has returned from Maine. The closing exercises will be held in the school here on Wednesday, after which the pupils will take part in a short condirected by Miss Mary B. Harrington, the teacher in this district. Thomas Hughes and family went to the Simonds street grocer. The annual school meeting took place on Saturday, at which much school topic was discussed; the meeting proved to be a very satisfactory one. The trustees for this year are the same as last year, viz: Thos. Martin, Joseph Matthews, yiz: James Dixon, jr., and with a very satisfactory one. The trustees for this year are the same as last year; viz: Thos. Martin, Joseph McColgan and James Gamble. The annual picnic at Chapel Grove will was here Sunday visiting his parents. John Moore was in the village today on not be held on July I this year, as it was business. generally in former years; but it will probably be deferred until August. Rev. Fr. Borgman held services at Chapel Grove on Sunday, and despite the heavy showers it was quite largely attended.

CHARLOTTETOWN.

Charlottetown, June 24-(Special)-Fears are entertained that the Maple Leaf which runs between Tormentine and Cape Traverse has been lost with four men. The yacht was anchored on the west side of Cape Traverse wharf. When the wind increased to a gale the crew decided to remain on board all night. The yacht has not been seen since. It is believed she foundered.

Gagetown, June 26-The Methodist church was packed yesterday morning when the marriage took place of Miss Bertha Bulyea, second daughter of Wil-liam and Flora Bulyea, and Frank .Wat-son, of St. John. The bride entered the church with her father, to the strains of the wedding march. She was becoming

Laundry

- and the second of the second of the second of the

At the annual school meeting on the 21st inst., D. M. Elliott was elected trustee in the place of J. J. Shields retiring; $500 The Misses Cunningham were visiting Miss A. Miller is visiting friends in the in the place of J. J. Shields retiring; $500 was voted for school purposes. There was no services in the Methodist church last Lord's day, as Pastor Young was away attending the N. B. & P. E. I. conference at Sackville, N. B. Almira Parsons, who got home from Fredericton last Wednesday, is in very poor health. Her grandmother, Mrs. Kil-patrick, of Boston, brought her home and hope of her recovery. Mrs. James Stewart continues very poorly.

city. Mr. Wood, of Lynn (Mass.), is visiting friends here for a few days.

PORT ELGIN.

PORT ELGIN. Port Elgin, N. B., June 24—The Ujiji Minstrels gave a show in Hickman's hall Friday night; $60, was realized for the sidewalk fund. Rev. Mr. Wass, Methodist, preached here Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Palmer, formerly of Sussex, has been assigned the circuit here in place of Rev. Mr. Howard, who goes to the Portland Methodist church, St. John. William Mahoney, barrister, of St. John, speat Sunday with his brother, Dr. D. Mahoney, at Melrose. E. H. Allen and bride (formerly Miss Thompson of Newfoundland), arrived here Thursday last and have taken up their idence on Fort street. J. G. Laine has commenced the build-ing of his new residence on Fort street. A. B. Copp, M. P. P.; E. P. Eastman, Sackville, and Government Engineer R. Wetmore, Fredericton, were in town last week inspecting the Port Elgin and Tur-ner bridges.

business. Stillman Matthews has returned from a pleasant trip to River Hebert (N.S.) C. T. White, of Sussex, having spent last week in this village, has gone to Apple River (N.S.) Mrs. Collins, formerly Miss Ethel Hys-lop, and little son, of Apohaqui, are visit-ing Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hyslop. Henry Greer, of St. Martins, was here of this place.

James Hysiop.
 Henry Greer, of St. Martins, was here last week visiting his son, Fred Greer.
 Mrs. G. G. Davis and son Ira have gone to St. John for a short visit.

in that prosperous and progressive village

GRAND FALLS.

Grand Falls, June 25-The 30th annua celebration of the anniversary of the set-lement of New Denmark was held on slowly recovering he grounds adjoining the emigrant hall

DEER ISLAND.

Doughty still continues very ill at he James Calder is building a barn on the James Calder is building a barn on the property recently purchased by him. John Bridges, a captain in the Salvation Army, of Eastport, spent a few days on the island of late and conducted several meetings, which were largely attended. J. E. Stover has had great difficulty in filling his finnen haddie orders the past week, his men having gone on strike.

SHANNON.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, N. B., June 26-The Foresters' barbecue pionic at Penobsquis today was a complete success. Early in the day teams began to come in from the country rom all directions, and when the morning train arrived containing a big crowd, ac-companied by the Hampton band, the success of the entemprise was assured. Fully 850 dinner tickets were sold, and for tea a great many more must have been served. Admirable arrangements had been nade by the committee, so that there was o confusion and every person was served to their entire satisfaction. At 2.30 o'clock Gideon McLeod was appointed chairman, and the public speaking commenced. Hon. Wm. Pugsley gave a short and pithy address, which was much appreciated by the Foresters of the vil-lage. He told them that he and his colleagues. Messrs. Scovil and King, would ibute $50 towards furnishing the new

Rev. A. M. Hubley spoke next, and and the second second

Rev. H. V. Davies has accepted the call of the Baptist church here, and will Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, of Moncton, officiated at the marriage last evening of Miss Sarah Burnham, daughter of V. Burnham, merchant, and Gorman Smith. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride.

J. Goldmon went to St. John yesterday on a business trip. He has apened a clothing store here and is meeting with much success. Mr. Simpson, the new, station agent, and his wife came from Shediac this week. He will enter upon his duties at once.

Mrs. James Stewart continues very poorly. Hiram G. Foster, who has been in the store of the A. L. & S. B. Company for the last seven years, severed his connec-tion with that firm a week ago, and left today for LaConner (Washington), where he will enter the employ of his borther, J. Clarke Foster, who is doing a very large trade on the Pacific coast. At the close of the Methodist Sunday school on Sunday last, Mr. Foster was presented with the following address and a $5 gold piece.

with the following address and a $5 gold piece. Mr. Hiram G. Foster: Dear Friend: It is with feelings of deep and sincere sorrow that we learned a few days ago that you had decided to leave your native village and make the West your freat appreciation of your valuable services in the Sunday school, in the choir, in the social service and in all moral reforms. The small gift which we herewith present, it is hoped may ever be the means of revering your thoughts to this occasion and help to keep green in your memory many friends, your native village and your boybood days. May God's blessing of happiness and pros-perity accompany you through a long and useful life. Signed on behalf of the Alma Methodist S. S. Alma (N. B.), June 22nd, 1902. morning a short distance south of Daniel's siding. A car loaded with deals left the rails and was quite badly smashed, one of the trucks being broken and an end torn off. The rails were considerably damaged, the deal car lying across the track. The passenger car, on the rear, was derailed, but beyond a slight shaking up the occu-pants were not injured. The passengers numbering about 30 were taken to Salis-bury on a coal car. The train will be bury on a coal car. The train will be delayed this evening while the track is delayed this evening while the track is being cleared. Fred. J. B. Newcomb and Misses Mag-gie Archibald, Ethel Peck and Mabel Elli-ott went to Moncton today as delegates to the Mission Band. Mrs. W. J. McAlmon has gone to Mone-ton to attend a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society.

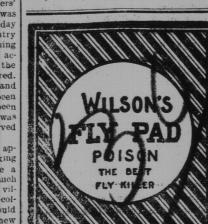

Missionary Society. The funeral of the little boy of W. M. Grange was held Sunday afternoon in the Biptist' church here, and was latgely at-tended. The services were conducted by Rev. F. D. Davidson. Interment was made in the new cometery here.

Shannon, Queens county, June 24-The Misses McCrea and Sherwood, of this place, and Messrs, Daye and Jones, of Mc-Donald's Point, returned home on the 14th from Fredericton, where they were attending Normal School. Hartley Reicker, who has been serious-ly ill, is somewhat better. Miss Lillian Magee, of St. John, is visit-ing at Mrs. John Foster's, in Henderson Settlement, and at Mrs. Jas. McCrea's, of this place. Rev. F. D. Davidson. Interment was made in the new cemetery here. Hopewell Hill, June 24—The June ses-sion of the Supreme court met at Hope-well Cape today, Judge Gregory presid-ing. The bar was represented by W. B. Jonah, M. B. Dixon, George H. Stead-man, James C. Sherran, and Hon. H. R. Emmerson. W. H. Fry, stenographer, was in attendance. Alexander Rogers, foreman of the grand jury, read an ad-dress to Judge Gregory on his first visit to the county. His honor made an ap-propriate and graceful reply to this ad-dress and also to one presented by the barristers. or this place. F. N. Ellison expects to be in St. John for the coronation. Garfield McCrea, of this place, returned home on the 11th, after a short absence.

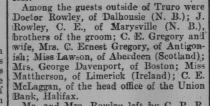

Miss Mina Coleman returned home on the 14th from New Hampshire, where she was spending the winter. Mrs. Geo. Jones, who has been ill, is propriate and graceral reply to this de-dress and also to one presented by the barristers. The only business before the court was the criminal case of the King vs. Stephen Beechin, for escaping, by force, from the custody of a constable some two years ago. The grand jury returned a true bill, but, strange to say, the prisoner last night escaped from Constable Walter Tingley and is still at large. The constable was indicted by the grand jury for not pro-ceeding to jail at once with the prisoner. The grand jury recommended that a strict investigation should be made into the origin of forest fires and that all of-fenders be punished according to law. Hopewell Hill, June 25-The following officers of Golden Rule Division, No. 51, S. of T., have been elected for the en-suing quarter: Herbert L. Brewster, W. P.; E. C. Starratt, W. A.; Mary E. Archi-bald, R. S.; Jennie Rogers, A. R. S.; Deer Island, June 24-Mrs. Noyes bald, R. S.; Jennie Rogers, A. R. S.

the ceremony there was a dainty break

Mr. and Mrs. Rowley left by C. P. R. for Boston, thence to the seashore nea the hub for the summer. Truro has los another social favorite, a talented and popular young lady. She was the recipi-ent of many beautiful presents from friends in all parts of the dominion.

Truro, June 26-(Special)--Miss Helen M. Good, of Woodstock (N.B.), was awarded a diploma in Truro Kindergarten on completion of the prescribed teachers' course. Democtic science diplomas wars Domestic scien ourse.

course. Domestic science diplomas were awarded Cora Peters Archibald and Min-nie L. McKenzie, of Truro; Bessie Smith Hilden and Mary G. Sterritt, of Yar-mouth, and Jean Creelman, of Maitland. The closing of both schools was success-ful and attended by the distinguished visitors who were at the Normal school visitors who were at the Normal school closing. The firemen had a grand promenade concert tonight. Because of rain the at-tendance was only fair. Features were cake walks by local colored people, and an imitation of the Westminster Abbey

Anxious citizens crowded round the bul letin boards all day keeping posted as to the king's health. Faces brightened this afternoon as more encouraging news wa received.

THE CARE OF THE FEET

is important. The pain and annoyance of Chilblains, Tender Feet, Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, etc., may be quickly re-lieved and oured by bathing well in warm water, dry well and apply thoroughly Kendrick's White Liniment. Try it and MAKER OF WEDDING MATCHES.

Utility of the Hebrew Schatchen --- Hut Marital Unions Are Brought About by Professionals in the Art -- The Advantages Claimed.

our people are brought about by match making, either conducted by relatives of by the professional schatchen The love match is the stem from which grows the unhappy marriage. The rea-son for this should be plain to the houghtful person.

The young man and young woman in love are totally blinded to each other's lefects, and consequently each expects the other perfection in the married hit Marriage is an eye-opener, and necessaril a disappointment to them, since perfe tion resides in no one. Quarrels and the livorce court follow. When relatives make the match, as the custom with many of our people, and with the peasantry of France and Ireand, this danger is overcome in greating measure; although the blood relationship of the matchmaker is apt to require to such for the relative even under that dan. Yet, in comparison with love matches these unions are very happy in-

- month stress and plater is loss with the substitution of the second stress of the

Dany's

Every household in New Brunswick will desire to have a nice picture of the King and Queen as a souvenir of the Voronation. The Telegraph has arranged for the exclusive handling in this province of fine individual lithograph

PICTURES, IN EIGHT COLORS, OF BOTH

. · . AND . · .

which this paper intends to use in extending the circulation of The Semi-Weekly Telegraph. These are the latest pictures of their Majesties, and are the best seen, the coloring being simply perfect. The pictures are worth the entire cost of a subscription to The Senii Weekly Telegraphy but we have decided to o subscribers. We will send to any address The Semi-Weekly Telegraph and the wo 8 colored litho pictures on fine heavy paper, suitable for framing, on receipt yment of a year's subscription in advance. This applies to both old subscribers whose subscription is paid up to date and to new subscribers. New ubscribers and old subscribers whose subscription is fully paid up have only to fill the form below and enclose $1.00 to receive the Semi-Weekly Telegraph for one and the two pictures. Old subscribers in arrears wishing to take advantage of this offer may remit the amount of their arrearages to date and $1.00 for a year's subscription in advance.

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENT

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph costs you $1.00 a year; the two individual pictures of the King and Queen, each 18x24, in a cardboard tube, are sent free of charge, postage prepaid by us.

Don't wait until the entire supply is exhausted. Fill out at once the following coupon and enclose it with remittance to

