

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Jan. 25.—Commissioner News of the Salvation Army, in conference with the members of the Fredericton board of trade this afternoon, stated that the immigration department of that organization would not be able to devote its attention to this province before 1913 as plans for the present year are now being completed.

The commissioner intends to return to New Brunswick in the summer and personally look over the St. John valley and other districts where settlers can be placed. He states that New Brunswick is as good a field for immigration as exists in Canada but needs advertising and booming.

F. S. Whitaker, of St. John, was here today and appraised the fire loss in G. F. Wilkes' store at $340.

There is opposition among the members of the Cathedral congregation to the proposed removal of Bishop Richardson to St. John, but just what form it will take is not known. An informal meeting was held last evening but no action was taken and another meeting will be held this evening.

H. E. Dewar, one of the proprietors of the Waverly Hotel, was taken suddenly ill last night from an internal trouble. His condition is serious.

A. R. Sipp, M. P., of York county, has been elected a fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 25.—(Special)—The cathedral congregation last evening adopted a strong memorial to be presented to Bishop Richardson urging him to reconsider his decision to remove from Fredericton. The meeting was practically unanimous. T. C. Allen, A. J. Gregory and A. H. Sharpe were appointed to present the memorial.

W. Leonard Palmer of the London Financial News is to accompany a party of English and Scotch financial men to the city in April.

T. H. Colter has resigned as director of the Fredericton Park Association and Hugh O'Neill has been appointed to the vacancy. J. M. Johnson of Calais will represent the association at a meeting of the National Trout Association in New York.

MONCTON

Moncton, Jan. 25.—"Members' night" at the Moncton Canadian Club this evening brought forth a discussion on some timely matters of importance to the citizens.

A public library, the curfew bell and supervised playgrounds were advocated and endorsed by the club and resolutions passed pledging support.

G. J. Oulton, principal of the High school, led the discussion on the curfew bell, and a committee composed of G. J. Oulton, Mayor Reilly, F. A. McCully, B. A. Bourgeois, J. A. Marven, E. J. Payson and A. O'Brien was appointed to cooperate with the Daughters of the Empire in securing a public library for the city.

Capt. Masters spoke on the importance of the curfew bell and a resolution was passed recommending that the legislation be requested to have the curfew ordinance supervised playgrounds were discussed by F. A. McCully, secretary of the school board, and the club heartily endorsed the proposal of the curfew ordinance.

The result of the interview was the management, it is understood, gave orders to have the men reinstated tomorrow.

Mr. Batty took the matter up with the management as president of the Lord's Day Alliance, and was informed that employees were never dismissed because of declining to work on Sunday from principle.

ST. STEPHEN

St. Stephen, Jan. 25.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church, Milltown, at a reception recently held in the school room of the church, presented Mrs. W. W. Rainnie with a beautiful set of Isabel Fox fur, silk dress and a five dollar gold piece in appreciation of her services in the church and choir.

Rev. J. L. Batty today visited on the I. C. R. management and took up the matter of nine men suspended recently because of a dispute over Sunday work. Mr. Batty pointed out that under the Lord's Day Alliance act the men couldn't be compelled to work on Sunday.

Miss Edith Newnam, a graduate of Newton (Mass.), who has been spending several weeks with her parents, Archdeacon and Mrs. Newnam, will leave on Tuesday next for Brookline (Mass.) to resume her duties as a teacher.

Dr. P. J. Blair, who has been in Boston on professional business, returned home today.

Several candidates came up from Grand Manan today and received the royal arch degree in the St. Stephen Chapter this evening. Oysters were served by the visitors at the close of the meeting.

G. T. Baskin is selling out his entire stock preparatory to going west in the spring.

Wilford D. Fowler, of Seymour (Conn.), formerly of Havelock, arrived here Saturday night. He will remain here a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, widow of Simon Moore, of Moore's Mills, after several weeks' illness, passed away at her home on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

DEER ISLAND

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

REXTON

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

Mrs. R. A. de Olligue and daughter, Miss Vera, left on Saturday for Ottawa. Miss Vera will proceed shortly to New York.

Supervised playgrounds were discussed by F. A. McCully, secretary of the school board, and the club heartily endorsed the proposal of the curfew ordinance.

The result of the interview was the management, it is understood, gave orders to have the men reinstated tomorrow.

Mr. Batty took the matter up with the management as president of the Lord's Day Alliance, and was informed that employees were never dismissed because of declining to work on Sunday from principle.

St. Stephen, Jan. 25.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church, Milltown, at a reception recently held in the school room of the church, presented Mrs. W. W. Rainnie with a beautiful set of Isabel Fox fur, silk dress and a five dollar gold piece in appreciation of her services in the church and choir.

Rev. J. L. Batty today visited on the I. C. R. management and took up the matter of nine men suspended recently because of a dispute over Sunday work. Mr. Batty pointed out that under the Lord's Day Alliance act the men couldn't be compelled to work on Sunday.

Miss Edith Newnam, a graduate of Newton (Mass.), who has been spending several weeks with her parents, Archdeacon and Mrs. Newnam, will leave on Tuesday next for Brookline (Mass.) to resume her duties as a teacher.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

LINSEED COMPOUND
is a reliable old English remedy for
COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Bronchitis, &
all Lung & Throat Troubles.

FREE
Here is a valuable
remedy for Coughs, Colds,
Asthma, Bronchitis,
and all Lung & Throat
Troubles.

FREE
Here is a valuable
remedy for Coughs, Colds,
Asthma, Bronchitis,
and all Lung & Throat
Troubles.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.

Deer Island, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Jack Ingalls and little daughter, Dorothy, have returned to their home at Lubec.

Mrs. Edgar Cummings and little daughter, Mildred, spent the week-end with friends at Lubec.

Miss Myra Chaffey returned home on Saturday by train from Medway (Mass.). Vernon Conley returned from Medway (Mass.) Tuesday last.

A sad drowning accident occurred in one of the recent storms at the Wolves, by which Sidney Lord and his brother, Mark, of Lord's Cove, who were fishing lobster traps there, lost their lives. Just how the accident occurred will never be known. Both were industrious young men and the sympathy of the island goes out to their relatives.

Miss Lena Wentworth, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

Harry Simpson, of Lord's Cove, spent Sunday with friends at Cummings Cove.

Mrs. Randall, mother of Postmaster Wilfred Randall, at Fair Haven, is seriously ill.

Rexton, N. B., Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk, of Moncton, were in town last week, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Girvan.

Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Archibald left this morning on a visit to Mrs. Archibald's former home in Chipman.

Douglas Girvan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Girvan, at West Galloway, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Bishop went to Moncton yesterday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Steeves, whose sudden death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Cameron street, Moncton, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bishop's many friends sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Simpson, Moncton.

on Friday last. She leaves one son, Bert Moore, and two daughters, Alice, who resided at home with her mother, and Mrs. Wm. Conick, of Moore's Mills.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry S. Smith and J. S. Lord went to Grand Manan last week and installed the officers of the Oddfellows Lodge at North Head.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Miss Flossie Killam, of Montreal, returned today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Killam, of Steeves Settlement.

Mrs. Hiram Stuits, of Steeves Settlement, has been very low for a few days. She was slightly improved Sunday but not out of danger.

H. H. Corey is at present in Portland (Me.), visiting his two daughters, and other relatives. He will probably remain there another month.

Miss Kate Kingston is in St. John attending business college.