

Four hundred and ninety-six calls were made in the interests of the work, and 1,498 received. Many kindred organizations have held their meetings in our rooms, so that they have come to be the starting point from which much good work has proceeded on its mission of helping others. Among which may be mentioned the Women's Christian Association, the city branch of the Order of the King's Daughters, McAll Mission, Protestant Orphans' Home Board and the Local Council of Women.

The Housekeepers' Mission, which is in connection with our Y. W. C. A., and whose stores are supplied by the kindness and liberality of the housekeepers of London, has carried on throughout the year its work of distributing fruit, jellies, etc., to the sick and aged poor of our city.

On the occasion of the visit to London, of Mrs. Hoodless (President of the Dominion Y.W.C.A.), a conference was held, when Y.W.C.A. plans and methods of work were discussed. In June, Mr. John Andras gave us one of his enjoyable Shakespearian readings, from "Much Ado About Nothing." Mr. Andra's selections, together with appropriate instrumental and vocal music, constituted a very pleasant evening's entertainment.

Our rooms were transformed into a dressmaking school for a portion of the winter months, when Mrs. Crow, of Toronto, conducted classes in dressmaking, cutting and fitting garments. Many young women availed themselves of the
