A black and white illustration of a woman in a long, patterned dress holding a large, ornate mirror. The mirror has a decorative frame and a sunburst-like design at the top. The woman is looking into the mirror. The background is simple with some decorative swirls.

A detailed black and white illustration of a large, round cooking pot, likely a Dutch oven or a similar heavy-duty pot. The pot has a lid with a small handle on top. The body of the pot is textured, possibly representing a material like enameled cast iron or a specific metal finish. A long, straight handle is attached to the side of the pot, extending towards the upper right corner of the frame. The pot is shown from a slightly elevated, three-quarter perspective.
