Feller Institute does not tolerate the use of tobacco among either teachers or pupils. In March last every girl in the school was a Christian; thirty boys pro-fessed conversion last year. Rev. Prof. W. C. Keirstead, Ph.D., spoke for Social Service. It is not an-other gospel than that of the application of that old gospel of society. There is no salvation for a man, except salvation in a mar; social work leads men to share Christian ideals with those about us. Friday Sessions share Christian ideals with those about us. Friday Sessions The Convention opened its session on Friday morning with a devotional ser-vice in which Dr. DeWolfe dealt with the first petition of the Lord's Prayer. 'Hallowed be Thy Name''. Those who can pray this prayer sincerely and sub-missively, he said, are God's children. Rev. G. R. Welch, representing the Canadian Branch of the American Bap-tist Publication Society, was introduced to the Convention. The report of Foreign Missions was presented by the General Secretary, Rev. H. E. Stillwell, of Toronto. Baptist missionaries in India number 98, and in Bolivia 22, making a total staff of 121. Of the Indians themselves there are 1.029 workers. There are now 92 church-es in India with a membership of 18,833. 'burdet on years ago there were 9.723. Sunday and evanabilistic schools sumbare
