SCHEDULE A.

“ Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.
 “ To all whom these Presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66 Chancery Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, hath by his Petition humbly represented unto us, that he is in possession of an invention for “ An improved method of effecting the separation of the Fibres of Wood for the manufacture of paper therefrom, which is also applicable to the separation of the Fibres of Flax or other substances for the manufacture of Textile Fabrics, and also to the separation of other substances for similar or other purposes,” which the Petitioner believes will be of great public utility, that the said invention has been communicated to him from abroad, and that the same is not in use by any other person or persons to the best of his knowledge and belief. The Petitioner therefore most humbly prayed that we would be graciously pleased to grant unto him, his executors, administrators, and assigns, our Royal Letters-Patent, for the sole use, benefit and advantage of the said invention within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man, for the term of fourteen years, pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided. And we being willing to give encouragement to all Arts and Inventions which may be for the public good, are graciously pleased to condescend to the Petitioner’s request. Know ye therefore, that We, of our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere notion have given and granted, and by these Presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant unto the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators and assigns, our especial license, full power, sole privilege and authority, that he, the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators and assigns, and every of them by himself and themselves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies’ Servants or Agents, or such others as he the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators or assigns, shall at any time agree with, and no others, from time to time, and at all times hereafter during the term of years herein expressed, shall, and lawfully may make, use, exercise and vend the said invention within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man, in such manner as to him the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators and assigns, or any of them shall, in his or their discretion, seem meet. And that he the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators and assigns shall and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole profit, benefit, commodity and advantage from time to time, coming, growing, accruing and arising by reason of the said Invention for and during the term of years herein mentioned, to have, hold, exercise and enjoy the said licenses, powers, privileges and advantages hereinbefore granted or mentioned to be granted unto the said William Edward Newton, his executors, administrators and assigns, for and dur-
