

Lister Hall put up for sale

The Lister Hall complex was put up for sale by the university administration Monday. Soaring maintenance costs, coupled with declining numbers of student renters were the reasons listed by the university's department of planning and development, in a press release.

Buxton Real Estate, who are handling the sale, have studied the complex Kelsey, Mackenzie, Henday, and Lister halls and estimate their value at slightly over $500,000. Sources indicate, however, that Buxton will accept Park Place and a hotel on Baltic Avenue in straight trade.

Prospective buyers include the U of A Students' Union, who have indicated they will continue to operate the halls as student residences, if they win their bid. The SU claim that they can operate Lister more efficiently than the university did because of their experience with HUB and because they are willing to "bend the rules" more than administration. "We might have all night discos, light rooms for the 'gardeners' in residence - NO SMOKING area, of course - and lots more," promises SU president Jay Spark. "Wait and see in the new year."

Arts Quiz Answers

1. 1
- 2.a. 4
- 2.b. 4
3. 3
4. 3
- 4b. 2 (with misspelled first name; when are you going to realize that life isn't going to be handed to you? This isn't Loto Canada.)
5. 5 (In case you need an explanation, as seems wearily likely: it's a 1959 flick based on Sheila Graham's confessional memoirs about her affair with Fitzgerald)
6. 2
7. 4
8. a. 4
8. b. 6
9. 4
10. a. 5 b. 7 c. 7

from the late 30's till his death. Are you sure you're really Arts faculty material? I mean you still only go to movies that your bookstore friends recommend, unless they have 'political content' and are 'relevant.'

Dirty tricks cited at student elections

Revelations of political dirty tricks rocked this campus today when it was discovered that the campaign of the Conceptual Reality Alternative Party (CRAP) slate in this year's SU executive election had been deliberately sabotaged.

In what has become known as the WaterGateway scandal, a group of trained apes, disguised as member of Campus Security, began their counter-campaign by tearing down numerous CRAP posters throughout the university.

This team of tricksters then invaded CRAP campaign headquarters in SUB 226 (the WaterGateway). Here they discovered plans for a fake assassination of Rene LeLarke to be held as a publicity stunt at the election rally.

They quickly substituted real bullets for blanks, and LeLarke, as they had anticipated, was shot. Fortunately, only his nose was damaged in the incident.

In a Getaway interview Monday, LeLarke stated that he plans to sue the university for damages of $10.35, the cost of replacing the nose.

Informed sources link this plot to the president, who reportedly feared that, with CRAP in power, members of the Board of Governors and General Faculties Council might begin to wake up at meetings. President Gunning has, however, denied any knowledge of the WaterGateway break-in.

When questioned, Campus Security chief Breakey at first refused to divulge any information about the affair. When questioned by GFC, however, Breakey admitted that he had supplied Campus Security uniforms for the imposters at the request of a superior.

Upon further questioning, Breakey also admitted that, yes, the imposters had shown such a high aptitude for the job that he had immediately hired them and had since promoted several of them.

Rumors indicate Breakey may be relieved of his responsibilities in the near future.

GRADUATION PORTRAITS
Annual Special Offer
1/3 to 2/3rds off Regular Price
JANUARY 3rd to APRIL 15th

Phone for your Appointment now.
439-7284
433-3967

Parker & Garneau Studio
One Location Only 8619 - 109th Street 3 blocks East of Campus

Smith & Bacchus adds Disco Dancing at no cover charge to great eating.

When you've crushed your head into a textbook.
Knocked your brain out in lecture after lecture.
Taken just about as much as you can handle of learning.

Come on over to Smith & Bacchus, just the way you are and we'll change all that...

Dance to great Disco Sounds in the new Disco Lounge or eat at our Restaurant. There's no cover charge, just a great change of atmosphere... So get your head into a good time.

Smith & Bacchus
at 112 St. & 87th Ave., just east of the Jubilee

Where the fun is on the house.