

| PLACE              | DATE      | TIME      | SUMMARY OF EVENTS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | REFERENCE TO APPENDICES |
|--------------------|-----------|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Edmonton, Alberta. | 5 June/44 | (Cont'd)  | Drill Tests for officers commenced today. The Course has been in operation for about one month, three nights a week.The Dance Orchestra made a trip to Ponoka, Alberta, to play for an Air Cadet Dance.Course No. 106, normally due to start training, was cancelled. There were 5 trainees taken in, who will be included in Course No. 107.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                         |
|                    | 6 June/44 | Tuesday   | Interest and excitement has flared up all over the City today with the news of the invasion into France, broadcast in the early hours of this morning.F/O E. J. MacLean (C.14608)(Educ.) reported on temporary duty from AFHQ.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                         |
|                    | 7 June/44 | Wednesday | Commanding Officer's Parade and Inspection this morning was made the occasion for special prayers for the success of the invasion. Similar services were held all over the City, with public schools and other organizations being closed for an hour or so in observance.The annual inspection of the No. 12 (Edmonton) Squadron Air Cadets was held here today, with the Commanding Officer of the Station in attendance.The Station Orchestra played for a Hostess Dance at the Y.M.C.A. this evening.The Station Fastball Team defeated the U.S. Air Corps Team 12 to 9 in the Inter-Service League.No. 4 I.T.S. played to a one-to-one tie in an exhibition Soccer game with the Navy.                                                                                          |                         |
|                    | 8 June/44 | Thursday  | S/L J. G. Sparling (C.4230)(Chap. P.), S/L C. E. Brannan (C.1895)(Accts.) and S/L W. A. Whittaker (CB43914)(Accts.), all from No. 4 TCHQ, were visitors on the Station today.F/O A. W. McMillan (C.3635)(Adm.) was posted in on staff from No. 8 U.A.T.C.G/C C. H. Flinn, S.A.S.O. from No. 4 TCHQ, visited here today, re training.F/L T. S. Meeres (C.7144)(Educ.) and F/O W. A. Scott (C.11719)(Educ.) from No. 2 I.T.S., Regina, were also visitors today.Station Band broadcast its regular program over CFRN at 2030 hours.No. 4 I.T.S. defeated Northwest Staging Route 4 to 2 in an Inter-Service Fastball game.                                                                                                                                                         |                         |
|                    | 9 June/44 | Friday    | S/L G. W. Cowley (C.2562)(W&B) inspected the Works and Buildings Section today in the capacity of Command Staff Officer. Conditions in general were satisfactory.The first Swimming Meet of the season was held at No. 2 A.O.S. Pool. There were entries to every event from this Station, which placed third in the competition.Two members of the Women's Auxiliary visited patients in the Hospital.Course No. 102 was drill tested by the Squadron Commander, Drill Officer and S.W.O., with "H" Flight receiving 15 marks out of 20 and "G" Flight receiving 14.G/C A. D. Kelly (C.3975)(DDMS), W/C W. J. Gardiner (C.27334)(Med.), S/E H. R. McIntyre (C.5763), Assistant to the P.M.O., and Matron J. E. Porteous (C.5657) visited the M.S.B. and made a thorough(P.T.O.) |                         |