sincerely ask for your earnest co-operation. We simply cannot allow more time to be lost or money to be spent without adequate results. Indeed we must depend largely upon voluntary workers for at all costs the work must be done. I mean the line of work such as suggested in my letter to Hon. Mr. Monty, copy of which was sent to you. I would be glad to hear from you with any suggestions and earnestly bespeak your cordial co-operation.

Yours very truly,
