

the parties interested, that, to establish a person's right to reside on an Indian Reserve he must prove that he fulfils the conditions provided by the Indian Act 1876. e.g.:— that he is an Indian and a member of the Band, or that he has been officially authorized to reside on the Reserve under Section 12 of the Indian Act of 1876.

The questions to be decided being therefore almost entirely questions of fact such as may be solved by enquiries made by the local Agent of the Department, and the certificates of Baptism and Marriage proving