Ottawa 21st April, 1902.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 15th instant, with enclosure, I beg to say that in view of Antoine Fisher's serious illness the Department approves of relief supplies being furnished to him and his family to the extent of two dollars per week for the next three months, or until such time they or their friends can provide for their maintenance.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.

J. F. Hodder, Esq.,
