

201 011/12.

OTTAWA, 11th March, 1912.

Sir.

Referring to your letter of the 5th instant, enclosing rental for Stanley Island, in the River St. Lawrence, I beg to say that, according to the books of the Department, this island is under lease to Donald R. Macleod, and I have, therefore, to request you to be good enough to state why the rental is paid by Joe Inguette. Pending receipt of your reply, the money will be retained by the Department, but will not be credited on the lease of the island in question.

Your obedient servant
