

- of the Commlt-
 built at, ii. 72;
 by Beauhar-
 Missouri River,
 of the "Far
 about Detroit,
 s, etc., i. 269.
 as River, ii.
 Outagamies, i.
 Michigan, i.
 West, i. 268;
 oit, i. 270;
 271; their
 ight ensues,
 ew of Du-
 i. 280;
 surrender
 attack the
 of Louvi-
 Vaudreuil
 320; their lake treaty
 k the Illi-
 f burned
 of King
 , i. 324;
 ing their ncil with expedi-
 nery, i.
 de Vil-
 by Hu-
 ated, i.
 trader,
 s incor-
 es, etc.,
 ame, i.
 by Ins, i. 90.
 un, ii.
 e, ii.
 anada
 enter-es de 2-39;
 De la
 tains
 way
- to, ii. 55; the search for, undertaken by M. de St. Pierre, ii. 57, 59 note.
 Paddon, Captain, of the "Edgar," i.
 165.
 Padoucas, Indians, ii. 14; name given to the Comancho Indians, ii. 19
note.
 Pain, Father, at Acadia, i. 182.
 Palfrey, New England, cited, i. 261
note, ii. 160 note.
 Panawanské, an Indian village, i. 235.
 Paradis, —, acted as pilot in Walker's expedition, i. 164.
 "Parfait," a French war-ship, ii. 181.
Paris Documents, i. 100 note.
 Parsons's Life of Pepperrell, cited, ii.
 99 note, 113 note, 158 note.
 Parsons, Widow, carried off by Indians,
 i. 46.
 Parthena, a negro woman, i. 58.
 Partridge, Colonel Samuel, letters of,
 cited, i. 66 note.
 Passamaquoddy Bay, Colonel Church's attack on Canadians at, i. 118.
 Patterson's memoir, cited, i. 129 note.
 Paugus, war-chief of the Pequawkets, i.
 248; killed, i. 258.
 Pawnees, Indians, on the Missouri, ii.
 14; visited by Du Tisné, ii. 14.
 Payne, John, letter to Colonel Robert Hale, ii. 107 note.
 Peace of Ryswick, mentioned, i. 2, 55.
 Pelham, Fort, built on the site of the present town of Rowe, Mass., ii. 246.
 Pemoussa, an Outagamie chief at the fight of Detroit, appeals to Dubuisson for peace, i. 278; makes a second appeal to Dubuisson, i. 282; surrenders and escapes, i. 286.
 Penacooks, Indians, pretended peace with Governor Dudley, i. 35.
 Penecaut, accompanies Le Sueur on his voyage, ii. 5; Relation of, cited, ii.
 8 note.
 Penhallow's History of Wars of New England, etc., i. 35 note, 36 note, 44
note, 67 note, 127 note, 212 note, 226
note, 253 note, 260 note.
 Penhallow, Captain, his interview with hostile Indians at the Georgetown council, i. 225.
 Pennsylvania, called upon for troops, i.
 130; refused aid in the reduction of Canada, i. 132; men raised in, to capture Canada, ii. 169.
 Penobscots, Indians, pretended peace with Governor Dudley, i. 35; join a war-party, i. 92; join in a council to meet Governor Shute, i. 216; the mission village of the, destroyed, i.
 235; conclude a treaty of peace,
 i. 245; their new village burned by Captain Heath, i. 245; encamped with De Ramesay near Acadia, ii.
 187.
 Penobscot, Me., i. 3.
 Pensacola, i. 130; Le Moyne d'Iber-ville at, i. 290; also Spanish ships, i.
 290.
 Pensens, —, induced the Acadians to migrate, i. 186.
 Pepperrell, William, cited, ii. 83 note;
 his portrait, ii. 91; given the chief command of an attack upon Louis-bourg, ii. 91, his mansion-house at Kittery Point, ii. 92; his early life, education, etc., ii. 93; held many offices, ii. 94; consults Rev. George Whitefield when appointed to command the siege of Louisbourg, ii.
 95; a plan suggested to him for reconnoitring Louisbourg, ii. 96; receives commissions from three Provinces, ii. 100; manages the landing of the fleet at Louisbourg, ii. 115;
 his soldiers camped at Louisbourg, ii.
 121; the cheerfulness of his men under difficulties, ii. 123; orderly conduct of his men, ii. 129; his popularity with his army, ii. 131; his cares and annoyances, ii. 132; receives Warren's plan for taking Louisbourg, ii. 146; agrees with Warren upon a mode of attack, ii.
 148; makes terms of capitulation to Duchambon, ii. 150; quoted concerning the surrender, ii. 151; gives a dinner to celebrate the surrender, ii.
 152; jealousies between his soldiers and the sea force of Warren, ii. 155, 156; receives the keys of the fortress, ii. 157; delivers them to Governor Shirley, ii. 158; as compared with Warren, ii. 158 and note; knighted and given a commission in British army, ii. 159, in charge with Warren at Louisbourg, ii. 164.
Pepperrell Papers, the, cited, ii. 161
note.
 Pepin, Lake, a fort built at, ii. 3, 6.
 Pequawket Indians, i. 48; join in a council to meet Governor Shute, i.
 216; a tribe of the Abenakis living on the Saco, i. 247; Lovewell's expedition against the, i. 249; the fight at Lovewell's Pond, i. 252, 254; cowed by the English, i. 259.
 Perelle, Ensign, carries a flag of truce from Governor Suhercase to the English camp, i. 146.
 Perier, Sieur, succeeds Bienville in Louisiana, i. 309; recalled from Louisiana, i. 311.
 Perriere, Boucher de la, military chief