BAD FIRE

A great deal of excitement reigned on King street last evening about 10 o'clock just as the people were coming out of the Grand Opera House. The fire bells rang and the hose wagon and truck dashed past the Opera House at break neck speed. The crowd from the Opera House followed the brigade as far as the Third street bridge, where the reflection from the fire could be seen lighting up the sky, but it was too far away to follow it further.

The loss will be about $800.

No fellow can get much of a show unless he has the price of admission.

WILLIAM GORDON

CHURCH VS. THEATRE

At the morning service in Christ Church on Sunday Rev. Rural Dean McCosh read the first Lenten pastoral of Bishop Williams, and also gave an address on it.

During his address Mr. McCosh exhorted the congregation to give up pleasures and amusements during the present season—to withdraw from the world and spend more time in God's House, and in prayer. In dealing with the expenditure of money, Mr. McCosh said:

"There is more money spent in maintaining our theatre than is spent in all the churches in the city. You may say this is a startling statement, but merely mention it because this is the proper season of the year to consider this. I don't think anyone will accuse me of being narrow-minded as far as pleasures go, but I merely wish you to turn away from these amusements so that you can spend more time and money in the House of God."

AT HOLY TRINITY

Frank E. Powell, divinity student, Huron College, London, Ont., took both services and preached two excellent sermons in Holy Trinity Church on Sunday. He took for his text in the morning Isaiah, 26, 20, "Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself for a little moment until the indignation be overpast," and Mr. Powell treated the subject in a manner showing much study and thought. Mr. Powell, it is understood, will fill Holy Trinity Church pulpit until Rev. Mr. Hodgins takes charge on April 2nd. Mr. Powell has made many friends since beginning his duties here, and is a rising young Anglican minister.
