

Baby's Portrait.

Will baby ever be its present age again?
Can it ever be sweeter to you than it is?
Don't you want to perpetuate its present daintiness?
Delays cannot be overcome—the past cannot be recalled.
Better bring the little thing up to us, we'll do it justice.

YOUNG MAN WAS 'TOUCHED'

Mingled with Chatham's Tenderloin and had his pocket picked.

Colored Woman Convicted of the Theft—A Story of Misplaced Confidence.

George Campbell, of the Township of Romney, an unsophisticated country youth, came to the city Thursday to see the circus. Being enamored of city life he lingered in the village over night and yesterday morning wandered out to see the sights in the Tenderloin district, otherwise known as Colborne St. He had as much as $15.70 in real money in his pants pocket when his fancy led him to mingle in the life of the Tenderloin. He mingled, and shortly afterwards was seeking assistance from the police to get his $15 back. He was willing to let the 70 odd cents go. As a result of Mr. Campbell's investigations into the mysteries of city life, Ida Sullivan, a colored woman, was arrested. Judge Houston found Campbell told the Court his story of misplaced confidence. He visited Harvey Wilson's house and put up 20 cents for whiskey. The men in the house went out to get it. Then Mina Wilson went down stairs to "hook fish." Campbell figured as a sucker and was cooked for his 15 plunks.

After hearing all the evidence, Judge Houston found the woman guilty and remanded her till Monday for sentence.

ANOTHER OIL WELL

On Friday a good well was struck three hundred feet from the D'Keeffe well on the Doyle farm in Harwich.

It has been named the "Walker" in honor of J. R. Walker, one of the promoters, and gave a large flow, and every indication of a good well.

The oil filled to the top of the casing and overflowed in considerable quantities before being capped, and to-day pumps are being placed in position for active operations.

The success that has attended the company's efforts in Harwich has given a fresh impetus and a number of oil operators who were early in the field have returned to the city.

Already six shipments have been made and three more carloads are awaiting shipment, but at present cars are not available. It will probably be sent out next week.
