GOSSAL.
Mr. Jas. W. Innes, Woodstock, Ont., breeder and importer of Clydesdales, makes a change in his advertisement, in which he offers for sale three imported stallions, by such noted sires as Pride of Blacon 10837 and Prince of Brunstone (9977).

Some educator wants the children taught in school more of the three R's and less of the Get-Wise-Quick stuff, as he calls it. As between the people who would have children learn nothing but bookish rules concerning reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic, and those who would have them abolish books and learn entirely from facts and actual experience and observation, there is no doubt a happy medium. Let us keep cool and keep in the middle of the road on these matters.

HACKNEYS AT WINNIPEG.

British Yeoman, imported and exhibited by T. H. Hassard, Millbrook, Ont., was the first-prize winner in the aged class of Hackney stallions at the Winnipeg Exhibition this year. Imperialist, shown by A. A. Perley, Wolseley, was second, and Stuntney Pharaoh, third. In the two-year-old and yearling stallion classes, Borrow Moss Meteor, shown by Dr. Henderson, Carberry, was first. Borrow Moss Meteor was the champion horse.
John Wishart had the first-prize brood mare, two-year-old filly and foal, and Dr.
Henderson's Gambling Gay was the champion female.

A belated traveller asked for a room at a hotel, and was told there was only a small one left and it was next that of a regular boarder, who was a nervous crank who raised Cain if he was disturbed. He was cautioned to be quiet as possible on retiring, and promised to do his best. He entered the room, closed the door without making a sound and proceeded to disrobe. He got along fine until removing his boots, when one slipped inadvertently from his hand and fell with a sickening thud on the floor.
He waited a moment to note the result, but apparently his neighbor was undisturbed, as there was not a sound. He had retired quite a few minutes, and was just dozing off when there came an awful pounding at his door. "Hello! what's the matter?" he cried out. From the other side of the door came in irritable, testy tones, "Confound you! Why don't you let that other boot drop? I have been waiting twenty minutes for it."

Hanibal Hamlin, for many years a United States senator from Maine, and Vice-President during the Civil War, was wont to tell the following story on himself:

"An Englishman by the name of Pearson, while passing along the main street in Bangor, stepped in a hole in the sidewalk, and, falling, broke his leg. He brought suit against the city for $1,000 and engaged Hamlin as counsel.

"Hamlin won his case, but the city appealed to the Supreme Court. Here, also, the decision was for Hamlin's client.

"After settling up the claim, Hamlin sent for his client and handed him $1.

"What's this?" asked the Englishman.

"That's your damages, after taking out my fee, the cost of appeal, and several other expenses," said Hamlin.

"The Englishman looked at the dollar, and then at Hamlin. 'What's the matter with this,' he said, 'is it bad?'

Mayor McClellan is fond of relating this experience which befell him when a Congressman in Washington:

"One night when I was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue," said Mr. McClellan, "I saw a big policeman standing on the corner acting in a suspicious manner.
He held one hand behind his back, as if he were concealing something. Just for the fun of the thing I approached and asked him:

"What have you there?"

"For an instant he looked startled, and then, quickly bringing his arm round in front of him, said:

"It's an apple; have a bite?"

"No, sir," I said, sternly. "Don't you know who I am?"

"Don't know you from a lamp post, sir."

"Well, I am Congressman McClellan."

"Is that so? Then take half of this apple. I suppose if you were a Senator I'd have to give you the whole of it!"

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Stomach Cramps and all Summer Complaints take

Don't experiment with new and untried remedies, but procure that which has stood the test of time.
Dr. Fowler's has stood the test for 60 years, and has never failed to give satisfaction. It is rapid, reliable and effectual in its action and does not leave the bowels constipated. REFUSE ALL SUBSTITUTES.
THEY'RE DANGEROUS.

Mrs. BROWN LUK, Aymer, Que., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Diarrhoea for several years past and I find it is the only medicine which brings relief in so short a time."
