A Night with the Chatham C. M. B. A.

After the installation of the officers for the coming year in the C. M. B. A., Thursday evening, the branch, assisted by lady friends, gave a highly interesting impromptu musical entertainment in St. Patrick's half to a large number of invited guests. The half and stage were prettily arranged for theoceasion.

MR. W. T. CONNORS.

Chancellor and retiring president of the branch, delivered an address of welcome to the visitors. He referred to the nusical treat, under the competent direction of Frof. Harrington, that was in store for the audience, and spoke at some length of the objects and almost of the C. M. B. A., giving some interesting figures concerning its growth in Chatham and elsewhere. Two years ago Chatham Branch. 22 was organized, with a membership of 17, it on light it had 71 members—a very good record. In 1851 the first branch formed in Canada awa organized at Windsor, Ont., with a membership of 17; it on light the order has over 18,000 in an orphans by the order already. He concluded a very interesting address by inviting all who were eligible for membership to make application at once and become members, but reminded them that they must be practical Roman Catholics. He then announced the programme, as follows:

said he had nothing to say more than had aiready been said by the chancellor and exPresident. Brother W. T. Comors. It was all very well to preach from a text in church, but to address an audience amongst whom there might be many critics was a different thing.
He was a novice at the task, but as he had a duty to perform in this respect he would per

Roman Catholic is a man who performs every duty required of him; a man who is true and tried.

He them quoted some figures already given by the ex-President, and, continuing, said: The idea that every day should provide for itself was a mistake. The sborigines of this country—the Indians—had adopted that plan, and as a result their race was rapidly becoming extinct. People now a days believed in providing for the future; for their families, should they be called away. In fact it was their duty to do so, and to fulfil that duty the Catholic men of Chatham had a splendid opportunity of doing so by becoming members of Branch 202, C. M. B.

A. The insurance was cheap and would be a leezety to those we leave behind.

There is another feature in connection with this association which is an important one. It is, the Relief Association, One of its distinctive features is that no one but C. M. B. A. men can belong to it. If a member of it takes sick or is laid up by accident, after the first two weeks, he receives 55 a week for fitteen weeks. In the C. M. B. A. you can get insured all the way up from $500 to $2000. These were the extremes. The association was not a secret society. But it was necessary that some of its workings should not be made public. For in stance if a man should apply for admittance and was black beaned out, it would be a detraction and a slander on that man if members of the association were to publicly talk about it. Father Murdoch concluded an energetic and practical address by saying he was glad to see guch a manifestation of fraternal feeling and Father Murdoch concluded an energetic and practical address by saying he was glad to see such a manifestation of fraternal feeling and brotherly love as be had witnessed to night and hoped as time rolled on it would grow even made a brief and pointed address. He said he was at a great disadvantage; he had not known anything of the entertainment until Sunday night, and was in hopes the talking would be done by others. However, he could not do better than wish everyone a happy New Year.

As a commencement of the year nothing could be better than to join the C. M. B. A. He was not familiar with its workings, but knew enough about it to recommend it to every Catholic man present. He had recommended it before and now most heartily recommended it to every one. The dollars sometimes go as carelessly as if they were picked up in the streets, and they would be far better expended if paid into the C. M. B. A. A. for insurance to leave behind when our journey in life is over. The C. M. B. A. had a small beginning here two years ago. But it now has a good solid representation of seventy-one members. There has been a growing feeling of brotherly love amongst its members which was a pleasure to observe the marked bond of sympathy which existed between the people of this town generally. There were a lot of men present who were not members but who ought to be.

He then spoke in praiseworthy terms of the benefit association in connection with the C. M. B. A. and said he personally knew of two members of the association who were now receiving benefit from it. The benefit hey are receiving is a real, solid, substantial senent.

In conclusion he urged all to enter the C. M. B. A. and said he personally knew of two members of the merchigh adshown him conclusively that there was an abundance of musical talent amongst the Catholics of Chatham. It should be encouraged, and he hoped that as a start had been the proper of the present who were now receiving benefit from it. The benefit hey are receiving the Catholic of Chatham. It should be encouraged, and he hoped that as a start had been the proper of the continuation of the start and continuent to continue the continuent of the conti ed.

The entertainment throughout was of a very pleasing character. It was rich in music, song and oration. Mrs. Robt. Allan's song, where with the Angels Now," brought down the house. The piano solo of Mrs. W. T. Connors and the duet by Misses Sinnott and Blake were among the best features of the entertainment. The orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Harrington, and composed of Misses Hildebrand, Flanagan and Harrington and Messrs. Jas. P. Waddleton and Richard Walsh, was also a strong feature.—Chatham, N. B., World, Jan. 4.

Toronto, Jan., 1898.

Mr. Editor—Sir—I take the liberty of addressing a few words concerning the establishing in the Catholic University at Washington a chair for the perpetual teaching of the language, literature, culture and history of the Irish race. The Ancient Order of Hibernians has done much not only to keep alive the national spirit of the Irish people but to help Irishmen in America to a betterment of their material condition. This chair when established will do an ever-increasing honor to the Irish name and cause. It will help to unite us all on the common ground of literature and science. The great scholars of this land will learn through it what the Gale was and is in the world's bistory. Never was there a better time for this great deed. In France, Germany and Italy the Gaelic tongue is attracting hundreds of scholars. What a shame for us that races totally foreign should devote so much attention to our ancestral tongue, while we remain utterly ignorant of both! For a little individual sacrifice a great work can now be firmly established, and its results will go on ever multiplying in the future, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians will reap forever the reputation of having performed the highest possible act of enlightened generosity and done a deed that will greatly help to unite and elevate our race. We may believe, therefore, that the teaching of the Celtic chair will be from beginning a benefit to the Irish race, the Catholic Church and more and the properties of the control of the properties of the properties of the Rengal Polary of the Celtic chair will be from beginning a benefit to the Irish race, the Catholic Church and more selence.

I remain, fraternally yours,

The Rev. Chaplain then addressed the members impressing on the officers elected the necessity of strict attention to business and always to remember their obligations: by so doing they would perform the duties assigned them in a business like manner. The members should attend the meetings regularly, thereby making the officers feel that their work is appreciated, so that at the end of 1899 we will be able to say you have done good work. The Rev. Father then gave the members a motto to imitate—let every one consider himself an important factor of the society, whether he be officer or private; that without his assistance
a certain part of the work would be left undone.
When members have that feeling they will attend the meetings regularly as well as their religious duties. They will strive to increase the membership, and in various ways add to the prosperity of the Branch. The Rev. Father concluded by wishing one and all a happy New Year, both spiritual and temporal.

The following members contributed to the programme arranged for the evening: A. Turcotte, N. J. Curran, C. Burden, R. Cheeseman, J. Keating and S. Smithers.

The Rev. Father Cruise, Chapiain of the branch, at the end of Mass strongly advised the members of the congregation, male and female, to join the E. B. An Irish Tenor.

An Irish Tenor.

The popular Irish tenor, Mr. Joseph O'Mara, has been singing in Dubin at the third of the popular concerts and again at the promenate concert this week. He is a native of Limerick, His father, Mr. James O'Mara, is one of the most esteemed citizens of that historic city. Limerick in its day has been famous for many things, for instance, beautiful women and dainty gloves. There are no gloves made there now, and a friend who was at the last Limerick races, told methere was hardly a preity girl to be seen on the course. Cork is taking the beauty prize presently. Limerick lace still ekes out a struggling existence. In the curing of bacon alone is the city of the Treaty Stone keeping up-to date. Limerick hams take the lead. Measrs. O'Mara & Son, is one of the oldest and most respected firms in the bacon trade. The O'Mara family is thoroughly Irish, especially in point of number. It is doubtful if the old man himself knows how many grand-children and great grand-children hand great grand-children hand great grand-children hand children and great grand-children hand children in the son that all his descendants dine with him on Christmas day. There is scarcely such another family gathering in Ireland. The tenor is the Benjamin of the flock. Even in the first flush of his success as a star of the Royal Italian Opera company, he came hame to spend his summer helidays with his father in Madoon-varna and Kilkee. Every July and August the O'Mara family is one of the attractions of these health resorts. Many of the rising generation give promise, of considerable musical talent. Before he went to Italy for training, Mr. Joseph O'Mara was in very great demand for charity concerts. People who heard him sing as an amateur took his professional success a a matter of course. His singing is charmingly sympathetic, his notes full and clear. On di that he has accepted an engagement from Si Augustus Harris for the coming opera season Mr. O'Mara is near relative of Mr. M. F O'Mara, of London, Ont.

PAULIST MISSION TO NON-CATH OLICS

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE. 'He that eateth me the same shall live by Me." "Drink ye all of this, for this is my blood of the New Testa ment." Although the early Christians received Him in both kinds, still, when persons were sick they only received Him in the form of bread; it was only in the form of bread alone that He was kept in the Church, and only in the form of bread that persons in prison were communicated. Therefore, the practice of the early Christians was not against it. It was also of great prac-tical convenience in the Church, where sometimes as many as 1,500 persons communicated at one Mass, all of whom were pressed for time, and had to be at their work that morning.

(15) How far do Catholics believe in fate?

Answer: Not a bit. All things are not fixed; they are not immovable nor unchangeable. I don't believe it for a moment. There is no such thing as fate. There is the law of God and the law of the elements; God stands always for the right. We want to cleave closely to God, to be in union with Him, and when we are we shall all be free from the grasp of the law of fate.

God commanded this seventh day to be kept holy, why does the Church keep the first day? Answer: Because the Apostles set the first day to take the place of the seventh as the Sabbath, and God Himself placed the Church in charge of such matters; the Apostles gave that legislation originally, and ever since it has been followed by all churches. (17) Would marriage with a Pro testant bring happiness? Answer: It would be wiser to take one of your own religion.

(18) What the ember days, and how came the term? They are the days of fasting and abstinence, so called from the embers or ashes in which the only food taken in the early days were cooked.

At the conclusion of the questions and answers, the Rev. Father Youman discoursed on "The Necessity for a Liv ing Teacher," and where that teacher was to be found, and Father Elliot finished up with another address or the same subject.

Thursday evening's meeting wa also well attended, and the question box liberally patronized. Many of the questions touched more or less on points that have already been an swered.

Owing to pressure on our space w are obliged to hold over much more of this mission that we would like to give. We will, however, give it in next week's issue.

Victoria County (Ont.) Pedier Before The Courts - Detected in Selling a Pink Colored Pill, Which he Repre-sented to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills-The Court Grants a Perpetual Injunction Restraining Him From Offering an Imitation of This Great Medicine — Some Facts the Public Will do Well to Bear in Mind.

"In the High Court of Justice yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Meredith, the case of Fulford v. Mc-Gahey was heard. It consisted of a motion for an injuction to restrain Fred McGahey from selling a pill which he claimed to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr Douglas E. Armour appeared for the plaintiffs and stated that the defendant had been pedling these goods about Victoria County, claiming them to be Dr. Williams' genuine Pink Pills. It was impossible, however, on the face of it, that they could be genuine, as he sold them greatly below what they cost at wholesale price. The defendant had given consent. Mr. Armour said that the motion should be changed to one for judgment against him. defence was offered, and his Lordship gave an order for judgment restraining McGahey from continuing to vend the article as Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People.

The above paragraph, taken from the legal columns of the Toronto Globe of the 15th inst., contains a warning which every person in Canada in need of a medicine will do well to heed, and shows the care and pains the Dr. Williams Medicine Company takes to protect the public from imposition, and to preserve the reputation of their famous Pink Pills.

It is only a medicine that possesse more than usual merit that is worth imitation. Ordinary medicines are not subject to that kind of treatment, as there is not sufficient demand for such medicine worth while.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have achieved a reputation for sterling merit unparalled in the history of medical science. In every part of the Dominion the remarkable cures wrought by the use of this great medicine have given it a name and a fame which has made the sale of Pink Pills simply wonderful.

It is because of this great merit, and the consequent enormous demand for the medicine, that it is being imitated by unscrupulous persons in various parts of the country. The imitation is cheap, usually worthless, and is only pushed because the imitator can make much more money by its sale than he can by the sale of the genuine Pink Pills. Hence the pains he takes to sell the imitation.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company annually spends thousands of dollars endeavoring to impress upon the public that the genuine Pink Pills can only be purchased in one form, namely, in pack ages enclosed in a wrapper (or label which bears the full trade mark Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. No one can buy them in any other form, not even if they offered many time their weight in gold for them. And yet in the face of these continuous warnings there are people confiding enough to permit some unscrupulous dealer to convince them that he can supply them with the genuine Pink Pills in loose form by the dezen or hundred, or ounce, or in some other kind of a box. Any one who pretends to be able to do this is telling an untruth. Bear this in mind and refus all pills that do not bear the full trade mark, no matter if they are colored pink and no matter what the dealer

Please bear in mind also that the formula from which Dr. Williams Pink Pills is compounded is a secret known only to the company, and any one who claims he can supply you with some other pill "just as good" is guilty of misrepresentation, for he does not know the ingredients of the genuine Pink Pills and is only trying to sell you some other pill, because he makes more money on its sale.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company is determined to spare no expense in protecting, both the public and themselves, against these unscrupulous imitators, and will always be thankful to receive information concerning any one who offers to sell an imitation Pink Pill purporting it to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or "the same as" the genuine Pink Pills. Such cases will be investigated by the company's detective, and the name of the person giving the in-formation will not be made public, while any expense entailed in sending us the information will be promptly refunded.
